In 2017, she received an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters from Bard College. She is married to her USMA classmate, Dr. Joel Jebb, and they have three children.

BOO CORRIGAN

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
@BOOCORRIGAN
7TH YEAR
NOTRE DAME, 1990

Boo Corrigan has presided over one of the most successful eras in Army West Point's recent history with Black Knights setting milestones and records both on the fields of friendly strife and in the classroom.

Now in the midst of his seventh year as the Director of Intercollegiate Athletics at the U.S. Military Academy, Corrigan has guided the Black Knights to incredible achievements with victories over Navy, surpassing ambitious fundraising goals, upgrading several facilities, adding three varsity sports and creating a new brand identity, all while cadet-athletes continue to raise the bar academically.

Corrigan, the 2017 NACDA Athletic Director of the Year, continues to advance the athletic experience for cadet-athletes, coaches, alumni, fans and administrators all while abiding by the warrior ethos. During the 2016-17 year, the Black Knights raised the bar yet again with a .585 winning percentage, which surpassed last year's record-breaking mark. The Black Knights' 292 wins surpassed last year's mark of 288 and is the highest of the 21st century and equals the mark set in the 1990-91 year. The Class of 2017 topped last year's seniors with a .563 winning percentage, the highest of this century.

For the first time since the 2013-14 season and 11th time overall, Army claimed the 2016-17 Patriot League Presidents' Cup on the men's side edging out service-academy rival Navy by 2.25 points. The spring was an impressive time for the Black Knights with men's tennis capturing their 13th Patriot League Title and men's golf star Peter Kim setting a league record en route to being crowned the Most Outstanding Golfer. Men's lacrosse and women's tennis also continued to rise by capturing regular-season Patriot League Championships.

The Army West Point Athletic Association was formed this past year. Corrigan oversaw the transition into a 501(c)3 non-profit organization on March 1, 2017 to gain flexibility and autonomy for the department. The mission is "to provide an extraordinary Division I athletic experience that develops leaders of character committed to the values of Duty, Honor, Country." The goals are to recruit and develop scholar-athletes who lead the Corps of Cadets, while competing and winning at the highest level and adhering to the department of the Army, NCAA conference, and Academy rules, regulations, and policies.

Throughout his time at West Point, Corrigan has overseen a program that owns 17 Patriot League regular season or tournament championships and sent 12 teams to the NCAA postseason. A total of 67 cadets have also earned a major award from their conference.

Under Corrigan's leadership, Army has added women's lacrosse and men's and women's rugby to its offering of sports with nearly a quarter of the Corps of Cadets, around 1,000, competing in varsity sports. In addition to the new sport offerings, three major facility projects have been completed to enhance the cadet-athletes' overall experience. 2016 saw the opening of the 15,000 square foot Foley, Enners, Nathe Lacrosse Center which is a state-of-the-art facility housing the men's and women's lacrosse programs with locker rooms, team specific rooms, new athletic training and equipment space along with an all-purpose area. Malek Stadium and Goldstein Field were erected for the summer of 2017. Malek Stadium is the brand new home for the men's and women's soccer programs and features chair back seating and a new multi-level press box which integrates the architecture of the area to aesthetically enrich the appearance of the Plain. Goldstein Field is a new practice facility that was constructed south of Michie Stadium which will provide unmatched functionality for all sports teams as seasons progress and for inclement weather.

Through his guidance, the Army A Club has seen a 16% increase in membership, to nearly 5,500 members in 2016, while increasing total raised annually by 148% from $2.5 million annually to $6.2 million in 2016. In addition, Corrigan has led significant growth of the Athletic Department's endowments establishing 16 new funds, more than doubling the number of endowments, and growing the department's total endowment funds by more than $11.5 million in his tenure.

Corrigan has strengthened and expanded Army Athletics' relationships in several key areas. In his tenure, Army has secured a new apparel agreement with Nike, a new pouring rights contract with Coke and has brought in the Aspire Group to enhance ticket sales and better serve Army season ticket holders. Corrigan also crafted the Team Army concept, a comprehensive plan designed to add significant value to Army's corporate sponsorships, while maintaining the tradition of West Point Athletics.

Army also partnered with Nike to complete a successful rebranding initiative in the spring of 2015. Corrigan ushered in a new logo and word mark for Army West Point as part of the rebrand.

Cadet-athletes have continued to thrive in the classroom under Corrigan's watch. In his seven full years, Army has boasted 16 Academic All-Americans, including eight first-team selections. Since the start of the 2011-12 season, Army boasts nine Patriot League Scholar-Athletes of the Year, including three from last season and one CoSIDA First Team All-District honoree.

Prior to his arrival on the banks of the Hudson, Corrigan spent three years as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs at Duke University, was an Associate Athletic Director at the University of Notre Dame for five years and spent time as the Associate Athletic Director for Marketing at the U.S. Naval Academy.

Corrigan is a 1990 University of Notre Dame graduate with a degree in economics and later obtained a Master's in Education from VCU in 2013. He is married to the former Kristen Aceto, a field hockey and lacrosse player at the University of Virginia, who also earned a master's degree from the school. The couple have three children, Finley (16), Tre (14) and Brian (13). He is the youngest of seven children of Gene and Lena Corrigan.

The 2017 edition of the Army West Point Football Media Guide was prepared specifically to assist the media in its coverage of Army Football. Requests for additional information should be directed to Matt Faulkner, Assistant Athletic Director for Athletic Communications, U.S. Military Academy, 639 Howard Rd., West Point, NY 10996-1589.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

HOFFMAN PRESS BOX

Hoffman Press Box is available to working members of the media only. Cheering is not permitted, nor tolerated. The press box is located atop the West stands of Michie Stadium and is accessible by elevator or stadium stairs. Also located in the press box are radio and television, visiting athletic director, game operations and coaches' booths. Admission to Hoffman Press Box is by credential only.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Requests for working media credentials (print, electronic, photo) for 2017 Army West Point football home games must be made in writing to Bob Beretta at least three weeks in advance of the desired game. Credential forms can be found on the GoArmyWestPoint.com website, and only members of the working media will be granted credentials. Anyone violating this policy will be removed from the press box. Credentials will be mailed 10 days prior to the date of the game. Those not mailed, or requested late, will be left at the "Will Call" window located at Gate 3 of Michie Stadium. Proper identification will be required. Media gates to the stadium open three hours prior to kickoff.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

The NCAA has established a sideline control policy to keep those areas free from congestion. Only photographers on assignment and working members of the television media are issued sideline passes. For admission to the sidelines at Michie Stadium, a green press credential must be clearly displayed. Under NCAA rules, photographers are not allowed between the 25-yard lines and must remain outside of the restraining lines surrounding the playing field.

ARMY-NAVY CREDENTIALS

Navy will be the hosting school for December's Army-Navy battle at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia, Pa. All requests and inquiries for working press credentials should be directed to Scott Strassemeier, Executive Athletic Director at Navy, no later than Wednesday, Nov. 30, 2017.

RADIO INFORMATION

The U.S. Military Academy will provide one ISDN and three analog telephone lines for one visiting radio station, with commercial groups granted preference over student stations. The lines must be reserved through Bob Beretta. There is a $150 rental fee usage for the ISDN line and a $75 rental fee for usage of each analog line. All calls must be charged to the outlet or billed to a credit card. Checks must be made payable to: Army Athletic Association, and received on the day of the game. The visiting radio booth in Hoffman Press Box is located on the second level, Room 214. For additional information on reserving phone lines, contact Bob Beretta at (845) 938-3303, or Verizon at (914) 890-6464, to install a line.

MEDIA POLICIES

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Members of the media are invited to attend practices at all times, unless prior notice of a closed practice is given. Video and photos are allowed only during special teams portion of practice. Please contact the Office of Athletic Communications in advance to determine the status of practice and gain clearance into the workout. A member of the Office of Athletic Communications must accompany media members at all practices and the use of cameras will be limited. To gain entry to West Point, media will have to give at least a 24-hour notice to Matt Faulkner, and will need to stop at the Visitor's Center, outside Thayer Gate, to obtain the proper entry badge. Practice generally begins at 4 p.m. and runs until 6 p.m. Players are only available after practice upon request. Coaches may be available based on that day's schedule.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Head coach Jeff Monken hosts a weekly media conference/teleconference each Tuesday. The media session is held in Nowak Auditorium, beginning promptly at 1 p.m. Monken's press conference can be viewed live via the Army Athletics Web site at GoArmySports.com. In addition, a sampling of those quotes will be posted on Army's web site afterwards. Contact the Office of Athletic Communications to obtain the access phone number to the teleconference.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All Army West Point players and coaches will be available to the media throughout the season. All player and coach interviews must be arranged through the Office of Athletic Communications. To ensure availability, please direct your player requests to Matt Faulkner no later than 3 p.m. on Sundays. Players will not be asked to miss class or other academic or military obligations to conduct an interview.

JEFF MONKEN INTERVIEWS

Head coach Jeff Monken is available to the media at his weekly Tuesday press session, which begins at 1 p.m. in Nowak Auditorium. Monken is also available for phone or television interviews by appointment only. Contact Matt Faulkner to schedule an appointment with Coach Monken.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Head coach Jeff Monken and selected players will meet the press after each home game in Nowak Auditorium, located just off the building's main entrance. Army's locker room is closed to the media. Please submit the names of players desired for postgame interviews prior to the conclusion of play. Your points of contact during the postgame period are Matt Faulkner and Kat Castner.

The visitor's locker room is located on the field level underneath the East stands of Michie Stadium. Postgame interviews will be conducted in the Media Interview Room located nearby. Ana Garrigo will serve as the contact point in that area. A video stream of Army's postgame press conference is also shown on the Michie Stadium video board via Knight Vision.

PRESS BOX SERVICESMEDIA SERVICES

Play-by-play, complete halftime and final statistics, coaches' and players' quote sheets, defensive statistics and postgame notes are all regular services provided on game day. Upon arrival, media members will receive an extensive press packet with game program, flip-card, updated statistics and game notes. An internal public address system will provide running play-by-play, updated information and key notes throughout the game.

ELEVATOR SERVICE

Elevator service to Hoffman Press Box is available throughout game day. The Hoffman Press Box elevator will be held with three minutes remaining in each half for use by the coaches of both teams.

PRESS ENTRANCE

Media members should access the Hoffman Press Box elevator at street level below the overpass near Gate 6A of Michie Stadium. Please arrive early as you and your bags are subject to a search.

TELEPHONES

Telephones are available for use by request. Only credit card or collect calls are permitted. Postgame statistics and quotes will be available via the Army Athletics Web site at GoArmyWestPoint.com two hours after the conclusion of play. Hoffman Press Box is also outfitted with numerous internet connections situated throughout the facility. Hoffman Press Box is NOT equipped for wireless internet connectivity. Media members are asked to bring their own ethernet cords for game day.

PRESS PARKING

Media members should request parking passes at the time of their initial credential inquiry. Parking passes are limited and will be mailed along with the media credential.

ARMY WEST POINT ON TELEVISION

CBS Sports Network and the Army Athletic Association announced an exclusive five-year agreement in the spring of 2015, guaranteeing live television coverage of every Army West Point home football game and select neutral-site games in which Army is the home team, on CBS Sports Network, beginning with the 2015 season and continuing through 2019. The deal was announced by David Berson, President, CBS Sports, and Boo Corrigan, Director of Athletics at West Point.

A partnership provides that all Army home football games will be played on Saturday afternoons beginning at either noon or 3:30 p.m. ET with all kickoff times to be set by May 1 each year. Additionally, a live web stream of all Army's home broadcasts will be made available free of charge to soldiers and military personnel around the world.

In the last 20 years, 112 Army games have been televised nationally, 24 via network television. The Black Knights have played before a national television audience 88 times the past nine seasons alone. A host of other games have been televised regionally. Those numbers will continue to grow this fall with six national television appearances scheduled as of August. Army West Point has had at least seven contests televised each of the past five years.

Army West Point is one of just three schools in the country guaranteed to have all of its home games televised nationally.

In addition to the Black Knights' home affairs, CBS Sports will televise the Army-Navy Classic to a worldwide audience for the 18th consecutive season.

ARMY WEST POINT ON THE RADIO

While owning one of the nation's most comprehensive television packages, Army boasts one of the country's most unique radio arrangements as well.

The Mission WMCA 570-AM is set for its second season as the New York City radio home for Army football. In addition to all football games on The Mission, Army also will air a weekly football minute on WNYM 970-AM The Answer its "Piscopo in the Morning" show.

Army West Point and its multimedia rights holder, Army West Point Sports Properties announced the creation of an Army Base Network to take Black Knights games and programming to military bases across the United States. The list for 2017 includes stations in eight states.

The Army Base Network will provide an exclusive opportunity for military personnel to hear Black Knights football games over the airwaves.

Local flagship stations, WBNR 1260-AM and WLNA 1420-AM, air the weekly "This Week in Army Football" radio show, which originates from West Point's First Class Club, throughout the season, as well as the popular "Army Football Tailgate Show." The fast-paced "Army Football Tailgate Show" originates from Black Knights Alley outside Michie Stadium on game days, beginning two hours prior to kickoff. The 90-minute show is heard from the press box at Army road venues before each of the Black Knights' away contests as well.

For the second straight season, all Army football games can also be heard through TuneIn Radio. The free app can be downloaded to any mobile device, and will allow listeners to hear each of Army's game broadcasts wherever they are.

Complementing its local affiliate lineup, the Army Sports Network returns to SiriusXM Satellite Radio for a 14th season this fall, and for the 18th consecutive year, Army West Point's radiocasts can be heard via the internet. All ASN game calls, as well as "This Week in Army Football," the "Army Football Tailgate Show," "Overtime Online," pregame and postgame shows, weekly press conferences and postgame press conferences can be heard and/or viewed live online at GoArmyWestPoint.com via KnightVision, Army's audio and video streaming platform.

Rich DeMarco, Army West Point's Assistant Athletic Director for Multimedia and Broadcasting, returns for his eighth year as the Black Knights' play-by-play voice this fall. In his 14th year with the Army Athletic Association, DeMarco has served in a number of roles for the Black Knights. The New Jersey product has most recently added Director of Licensing to his duties.

DeMarco, who hosts "This Week in Army Football," handled sideline reporting duties for Army broadcasts for six years and previously hosted the "Army Football Tailgate Show." During the winter months, DeMarco serves as the play-by-play voice for Army's men's basketball team, and handles similar duties for the baseball team in the spring.

Joining DeMarco in the booth on football game days is veteran color analyst Dean Darling, whose ties to Army's football program span four decades.

Tony Morino will handle the sideline reporting duties for the eighth straight season, while Joe Beckerle returns for his sixth season as program host. John Minko, Army's play-by-play voice for eleven seasons, will host the "Army Football Tailgate Show" from Black Knights Alley prior to home games.

JEFF MONKEN

@COACHJEFFMONKEN

HEAD COACH

4TH SEASON

MILLIKIN, 1989

Jeff Monken, named Army's 37th individual head coach on Dec. 24, 2013, is set to begin his fourth season as head football coach.

Monken shows a 50-39 career record as a head coach and a 14-23 mark at Army.

Last year was a breakout season for the Black Knights under Monken. He led them to their first win over Navy since 2001 and won a bowl game for the first time in six seasons. The last time the Black Knights accomplished both feats in the same season was in 1984. Army was second in the nation in rushing offense and ran for an Army single-season record 46 touchdowns, which eclipsed the 1945 national championship team. On the defense side, Army was consistently in the top-10 in total defense and finished the year fourth in the nation.

In 2015, he led Army to a pair of wins over Bucknell and Eastern Michigan. Under coach Monken, the Black Knights had five players reach 100 yards rushing in a game and had three different quarterbacks throw for 100 yards. Signal callers Ahmad Bradshaw and Chris Carter ran and threw for a 100 yards in their career debuts. Army won on the road for the first time since 2010 with a 58-36 win over Eastern Michigan.

Army finished 2015 ranked 12th in the country in rushing offense at 244.3 yards per game. Linebacker Andrew King was the top player in the national rankings. He was 21st in tackles for loss with an average of 2.1 per game and 26th in fumbles recovered with two.

In Monken's first season at Army, he guided the Black Knights to home victories over Buffalo, Ball State and Fordham, in addition to a dramatic win against Connecticut at Yankee Stadium.

Under his guidance, running back Larry Dixon, linebacker Jeremy Timpf, defensive back Josh Jenkins and offensive lineman Matt Hugenberg earned 11 citations on postseason all-star teams and two players, Joe Drummond and Dixon, competed in The Medal of Honor Bowl Game and East-West Shrine Game, respectively.

Army was fifth in the country in rushing offense at 296.5 yards per game in Monken's first season and sixth in fewest penalties per game with just 4.08 infractions per contest.

Monken tutored a host of players who listed in the national rankings. Timpf was seventh in the nation in solo tackles per game and 23rd in tackles per game. Jenkins was eighth in the country in blocked kicks and 33rd in interceptions per game and both Lamar Johnson-Harris and Xavier Moss ranked 11th in punt return touchdowns. Dixon listed nationally in rushing yards per carry (30th), rushing yards (39th) and rushing yards per game (41st).

With a 47-39 win against Buffalo in 2014, Monken became the first head coach to win his first game since Bob Sutton did so in 1991 with a victory over Colgate. Prior to Monken, the last Army coach to win his first game against a Football Bowl Subdivision opponent was Ed Cavanaugh in 1980.

Monken came to the banks of the Hudson River following a successful stint as a head coach at Georgia Southern.

He spent four seasons at the helm of Georgia Southern after learning the triple-option offense under one of the nation's premier option proponents, Paul Johnson, during assistant coaching stints at Navy and Georgia Tech.

During his four seasons at Georgia Southern, Monken authored a 36-16 mark and spearheaded the programs transition to the elite Football Bowl Subdivision level from the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) ranks.

Georgia Southern, which joined the Sun Belt Conference following Monken's tenure, was a member of the FCS and qualified for the NCAA playoffs in all three eligible seasons under Monken, advancing to the national semifinals each year while posting double-digit victory totals.

Monken guided tradition-rich Georgia Southern to some of the biggest wins in school history, with the most memorable arguably a 26-20 victory at Florida in November at the vaunted "Swamp." Despite that headline-grabbing victory, Georgia Southern was not eligible for the FCS playoffs that season due to its transitional status.

"I am thrilled to accept the head coaching position at West Point," said Monken at the time of his hiring.

"Not only is the United States Military Academy one of the most prestigious academic institutions in the world, it boasts one of the nation's richest, most historic traditions in all of college football.

"There are so many people I would like to thank for this tremendous opportunity, starting with Director of Athletics Boo Corrigan and our Superintendent, Gen. Bob Caslen. I am honored and humbled by their trust in me to lead the West Point football program. I have had the privilege of serving as a coach for several outstanding institutions and am thankful to all of the student-athletes, coaches, and administrators with whom I have worked.

"Because of their commitment, dedication, and loyalty, this opportunity to serve at West Point has been afforded to me. More than anyone else, I want to thank the men and women who have served and continue to serve our nation in the United States Army. I am proud to be your head football coach."

Monken and Johnson are the only coaches in Georgia Southern school history to win at least 10 games in each of their first three seasons.

"Jeff Monken is an outstanding football coach," said Johnson. "He is a tireless worker who will do the right things to build a program and he will be a great leader."

A finalist for the 2012 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award, Monken guided Georgia Southern to 10 wins his first season, 11 his second and 10 in his third. His 2013 squad posted a 7-4 mark, including the stunning, season-ending upset of Florida in Gainesville.

Under Monken's guidance, Georgia Southern was one of the top rushing teams at the FCS level, claiming the NCAA rushing title in 2012 at 399.36 yards per contest. Walter Payton Award candidate Jerick McKinnon and running back Dominique Swope established the NCAA record for rushing yards by teammates with 3,063.

Monken coached a lengthy list of all-stars, including the school's highest-ever National Football League draft choice, safety J.J. Wilcox, a third-round selection of the Dallas Cowboys in 2013.

In 2011, Georgia Southern was ranked No. 1 in both FCS polls for seven weeks and stopped Wofford, 31-10, to win its ninth Southern Conference championship. Five players were named All-America, Brent Russell was selected Southern Conference Defensive Player of the Year, Monken earned conference Coach of the Year plaudits and Dominique Swope was named Southern Conference Freshman of the Year. Home playoff wins against Old Dominion and Maine were part of the Eagles' memorable 11-3 campaign.

Monken got off to a great start in his first year as Georgia Southern's head coach, knocking off top-ranked and previously unbeaten Appalachian State as part of a 10-5 season. Georgia Southern ended the season with three straight wins to qualify for the postseason and registered three playoff victories to advance to the national semifinals.

In addition to the success on the field, Monken helped Georgia Southern reemerged academically with the team's cumulative grade point average ranking as the highest in school history in each of his first two seasons. Not only was Georgia Southern successful in the classroom and on the football field under Monken, but the players and staffs were part of several community service programs and local events.

Monken was named Georgia Southern's head coach in November of 2009, continuing a family history of football coaches. Jeff's father, Mike, and a dozen family members have coached at the high school, collegiate or professional levels.

Monken's first head coaching job came after accumulating 20 years of experience as an assistant, 13 of them with his mentor Johnson. Monken coached slotbacks at Georgia Southern from 1997 to 2001 before joining Johnson first at Navy and then Georgia Tech.

As an assistant coach at Georgia Southern, Monken was part of two NCAA FCS National Championship squads (1999 and 2000) and five straight playoff teams. Georgia Southern was among the top-five rushing teams in all five seasons and twice led the nation in rushing. Four out of five seasons, the Eagles ranked in the top-15 in scoring as well.

After serving as an assistant at Georgia Southern, Monken accepted a position on Johnson's coaching staff at Navy. Monken not only mentored slotbacks, he later added special teams coordinator duties.

In Annapolis, Monken helped the Midshipmen to five straight Commander in Chief trophies and five consecutive bowl appearances, including a 10-win season in 2004. Following his time at Navy, Monken moved to Georgia Tech where for two seasons he served as slotbacks coach and special teams coordinator. The Yellow Jackets posted double-digit wins in 2009 and captured the Atlantic Coast Conference championship, although that title was later vacated.

Monken began his coaching career in 1989 as a graduate assistant at the University Hawai'i and later spent one season at Arizona State University. Monken moved to University of Buffalo as the wide receivers and tight ends coach and also handled recruiting. He served on the staffs at Morton (Ill.) High School as head coach and at Concordia University (Ill.) as the offensive line coach as well.

A native of Joliet, Ill., Monken played wide receiver for four years and earned two varsity letters in track and field while earning his bachelor's degree from Millikin University in 1989. He was inducted into the school's Athletic Hall of Fame and collected his master's degree from Hawai'i in 1991.

Monken and his wife Beth reside at West Point with their three daughters, Isabelle, Amelia and Evangeline.

- Beat Florida on its homefield by a 26-20 score to finish 2013 season at Georgia Southern

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT JEFF MONKEN

"Jeff Monken is an outstanding football coach. He is a tireless worker who will do the right things to build a program and he will be a great leader. Jeff was a loyal assistant coach for me for many years and I'm excited for him and this opportunity." - Paul Johnson, Head Coach, Georgia Tech

"Jeff Monken is one of the bright young coaches in college football. He is a leader and is well prepared for this opportunity. Coach Monken and his teams will be outstanding representatives of the U.S. Military Academy on and off the field. Congratulations to Army for making an inspired choice." - Dan Radakovich, Director of Athletics, Clemson University

"Jeff is a terrific guy and an outstanding football coach. He and his family will be a great fit at West Point. Jeff will be the perfect leader to re-energize the Army football program and build support in the community." - Pete Lembo, Head Coach, Ball State

"The characteristics that make Jeff such a good coach is that he was one of those kids that was no great athlete but became a great player. He knew what it took to develop. When he worked his way into the Milliken Hall of Fame, they asked me some questions and I said it then too. He was one of those players who didn't have great speed but was willing to catch the ball in the briar patch, in the middle of the field. And he was probably the best blocker we ever had. He was also one of those chemistry guys who made everyone around him better. That carried over into the coaching part. I had a chance to visit with him at Georgia Southern and I was able to observe. He is very detailed oriented. Very detailed. He is what I would call a 'coach's coach' and a 'player's coach' and that's rare. He is not wrapped up in the ego part of it. If he can help a player, he is going to help him. If he can help another coach, another high school or college coach, he is going to help him. He is unique and he is going to be successful at Army." - Carl Poelker, Former Head Coach, Millikin University

"He was a great coach, a great man. He loves his team, loves his family and loves the game. Coach is a great fit for Army. He knows how to win and he knows how to handle players. He makes you want to run through a brick wall for him." - J.J. Wilcox, Safety, Dallas Cowboys, four-year letterwinner at Georgia Southern

"Hire Jeff Monken from Georgia Southern and don't look back, Army. He understands the military system. He was an assistant at Navy for all those years they were riding roughshod. He understands how it works. He has a love of the military academy. The guy can coach. He digs the military, he understands it, he understands what's going on." - Charles Davis, FOX NFL Analyst

"While the entire Eagle Nation is sad to lose Coach Monken, we are equally proud of what he accomplished here and of his move to Army. As a coach, Jeff Monken is, in my opinion, the whole package. He obviously knows the Xs and Os of football. But the thing that impresses me most about Jeff is his devotion to developing the entire young man, not just the athlete. He always stresses excellence in both the classroom and on the gridiron, and he encourages community service every chance he gets. He is a strict disciplinarian but is also quick to praise a job well done. Family is first with Coach Monken, and his love for family carries over to his team in every way. It has been a rare privilege for me to work with Jeff Monken, and I will always consider him a first-class coach and a true friend." - Brooks Keel, President, Georgia Southern University

JAY BATEMAN

ASSISTANT COACH
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
4TH SEASON
RANDOLPH-MACON, 1995

Jay Bateman is in his fourth season as the defensive coordinator of the Army Football program.

In his third year, he led a defense that ranked fourth nationally in total defense, including sixth against the pass and 18th versus the run. The defensive unit was also 16th in scoring defense, allowing 19 points per game.

Bateman's success on the sidelines in 2016 was noticed around the country as he was a candidate for the Broyles Award, which is given to the top assistant coach in the nation.

Senior linebackers Jeremy Timpf and Andrew King led the way in the middle. Timpf was 48th in the nation with 8.6 tackles per game, while King had 7.5 per contest. Army's passing defense went from six interceptions in 2015 to 17 in 2016. Rookie cornerback Elijah Riley led the team with three interceptions, while five others had a pair of picks.

In 2015 under Bateman, the defense held five opponents under 150 yards on the ground, picked off six passes and recorded five fumble recoveries.

That season, Bateman coached King and Timpf to 92 total tackles to lead the team. King finished with 16.5 tackles for loss and averaged 1.4 per game, which was ranked 21st in the nation.

Cornerback Brandon Jackson led the team in interceptions with three and Bateman tutored Xavier Moss to 67 tackles in his first year on the defensive side after two years on offense. In total, the defense had 58 tackles for losses of 210 yards, including 15 sacks, and broke up 27 passes.

In his first season at Army West Point, Bateman guided a defense that intercepted 11 passes and recovered four fumbles.

Bateman began guiding Timpf this season, who made a team-high 117 tackles in his first season as a starter and was named to three different postseason all-star teams. Timpf also led the team with 79 solo tackles and 14.5 tackles for losses of 35 yards. He ranked seventh nationally in solo tackles per game at 6.6 and 23rd in total tackles per contest with 9.8.

In addition, defensive back Josh Jenkins intercepted a team-best four passes and was second on the team with 64 tackles. He was also honored on a trio of all-star teams.

Bateman also guided then-first-year starter King to a 63-tackle season.

Army registered 55 tackles for losses of 179 yards, collected 10 quarterback sacks and broke up 33 passes in Bateman's first season calling the defense.

Bateman joined the Army coaching staff following three successful seasons as the defensive coordinator at Ball State University.

A 19-year coaching veteran, Bateman helped Ball State rank ninth nationally in turnovers gained with 31 and 12th in turnover margin at +0.9. In the Mid-American Conference, the team was third in scoring defense.

In his last three seasons at Ball State, Bateman mentored first-team All-MAC selection Jonathan Newsome as well as three second-team choices and helped two others earn third-team accolades.

Newsome was selected in the fifth round of the NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts with the 166th overall pick. He responded by leading all rookie defensive ends/outside linebackers with 6.5 quarterback sacks.

Bateman began his coaching career at Hampden-Sydney College in 1997 before moving to Siena College in 1999. After one season as an assistant, Bateman was elevated to head coach in 2000 and spent four seasons running the Saints' program.

In 2004, Bateman moved to the University of Richmond for a one-year stint before transitioning to Lehigh University in 2005 where Pete Lembo was the head coach. At Lehigh, Bateman helped tutor a defense that ranked sixth in the country.

Bateman then advanced to Elon University in 2006 and served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. He guided linebacker Chad Nkang to All-America status as well as Southern Conference Player of the Year honors. Nkang was drafted by the Jacksonville Jaguars. Elon won 35 games during Bateman's five seasons and collected at least one all-conference linebacker honor each season. Elon's defense ranked fourth nationally and led the Southern Conference in 2009 with just 248.33 yards allowed per contest.

Following his success at Elon, Bateman transitioned to the defensive coordinator role at Ball State. After a 6-6 season in 2011, Ball State won nine games in 2012 and 10 the next season while competing in the Beef O'Brady's St. Petersburg Bowl and the GoDaddy Bowl, respectively.

Bateman is a 1995 graduate of Randolph-Macon College. He and his wife, Heather, have a daughter, Bea and a son, C.J., and reside at West Point.

BRENT DAVIS

ASSISTANT COACH
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
4TH SEASON
GEORGIA, 1997

Brent Davis begins his fourth season with the Army Football program as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

The offensive unit ranked second in the nation in rushing offense with 339 rushing yards per game and a 5.6 yards per rush average. Army ran for over 500 yards twice in 2016 and racked up 4,412 total rushing yards, which was the third most in academy history for a single season.

Under Davis, the Black Knights ran for an academy record 46 touchdowns, which eclipsed the 1945 national championship team that had 45 that season.

Army saw fullback Andy Davidson and quarterback Ahmad Bradshaw run for over 900 yards. Davidson ran for 12 touchdowns for eighth all-time in a single season and the most since Trent Steelman had 12 in 2011.

Davis led the offense in 2015 that was 12th in the nation in rushing yards per game at 244.3.

He guided six players to 100-yard rushing games during the season, including two from Bradshaw and Aaron Kemper. Bradshaw and Chris Carter made their career debuts under Davis and ran and threw for 100 yards in their first game in an Army uniform.

The Black Knights' passing attack under Davis in 2015 saw Edgar Poe record two 100-yard receiving games, including 121 yards on five catches against Navy. Poe had six touchdowns, which was the most by an Army receiver since 2007.

In 2015 Davis coached Army to 34 total touchdowns with 24 on the ground and 338.2 yards per game for an average of 5.6 yards per play.

In his first season at Army, Davis guided an offense that was fifth in the country in rushing yards per game at 296.5.

Davis also tutored running back Larry Dixon, who rushed for 1,102 yards as a senior and for more than 3,000 yards for his career. Dixon was 39th in the nation in rushing yards during his final campaign and 40th in rushing yards per contest at 91.8.

Davis helped quarterback Angel Santiago rank 60th in the country with 10 rushing touchdowns.

As the primary play-caller, Davis led Army to 33 rushing touchdowns and 358.8 yards of total offense per contest that season.

Davis also worked with the offensive line, a unit that featured a different starting five on 10 occasions and still had Army among the nation's rushing leaders.

Center Matt Hugenberg was named to two different postseason all-star teams and Dixon collected honors for three different squads.

Prior to Army, Davis spent four seasons as Georgia Southern's offensive coordinator and also coached the offensive line in his second stint in Statesboro, Ga. A veteran triple option coordinator, Davis helped the Eagles to three consecutive trips to the national semifinals. Georgia Southern boasted the top rushing offense in two consecutive seasons in 2011 and 2012.

Davis also coached at Georgia Southern from 1997-05 when he guided the offensive line and running backs as the Eagles won seven conference championships and made eight playoff appearances. With Davis' charges blocking up front, Georgia Southern captured four consecutive FCS rushing titles as well as the 2004 scoring title with 47.0 points per contest. Eight linemen earned All-Southern Conference honors and three were voted All-American. Charles Clark won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 2002, presented to the best offensive lineman in the Southern Conference.

Davis guided the running backs from 1997-99 and worked with Adrian Peterson, the 1999 Walter Payton Award winner and SoCon Offensive Player of the Year. Peterson collected All-America honors and amassed over 2,600 yards in 15 games. Peterson was drafted in the sixth round by the Chicago Bears and played eight seasons in the NFL.

Davis later moved to coaching the offensive line

- Staff assistant coach on two National Championship teams at Georgia Southern (1999, 2000)
- Made the FCS Playoffs 11 times as a member of the Georgia Southern coaching staff before departing for Virginia Military Institute as its offensive coordinator. Davis spent four seasons at VMI, his final season as interim head coach, before returning to Georgia Southern.

The Keydets, running the triple option, led the Big South in rushing in all four of Davis' seasons. VMI established a conference-record 357.5 yards per game average in 2008, while the 2009 squad racked up 276.6 rushing yards per game. Both the 2008 and 2009 teams led the nation in rushing. In 2007, VMI produced four 500-plus yard games and ranked fourth in the nation in rushing and 34th in total offense.

Davis earned a pair of varsity letters at The Citadel as a tight end before transferring to the University of Georgia. He lettered and earned a spot on the Academic All-SEC Honor Roll before graduating from Georgia in 1997 with a degree in business management.

Davis and his wife Jen, a Georgia Southern graduate, reside at West Point.

JOSH CHRISTIAN-YOUNG

ASSISTANT COACH
CORNERBACKS
1ST SEASON
CENTRAL MISSOURI, 2007

Josh Christian-Young is in his third season with the Army West Point football program and first as an assistant coach working with the cornerbacks.

Christian-Young spent his first two seasons as a quality control coach for the defense on Monken's staff.

Prior to his arrival at West Point, Christian-Young spent two seasons at Georgia Southern as the cornerbacks coach. During his tenure in Statesboro, Ga., he helped the team post a 16-7 record and win the Sun Belt Conference title. He also assisted in all facets of special teams and had recruiting responsibilities.

Christian-Young began his coaching career at the University of Central Missouri where he coached cornerbacks and nickel backs as well as kickers and punters. In his five seasons, he helped the squad to a 40-17 mark and coached five all-conference players and recruited in Missouri.

A strong safety at Central Missouri, Christian-Young earned a pair of degrees from the university, a bachelor's degree in history and a master's in sociology. He also collected a master's in high education administration while at Georgia Southern.

He resides at West Point.

KEVIN CORLESS

ASSISTANT COACH
INSIDE LINEBACKERS
4TH SEASON

N.W. MISSOURI STATE, 1982

Kevin Corless is in his fourth season with the Army Football program as the inside linebackers coach.

Last year, Corless had the chance to tutor the two team captains in Jeremy Timpf and Andrew King. Timpf finished with 112 total tackles on the year, while King had 97 stops, including five sacks and 11 tackles for loss.

In 2015, under Corless' watch King and Timpf led the team in tackles with 92 apiece. King was among the nation's leaders in tackles for loss with 16.5, which ranked 21st in the country.

In his first year at Army, Corless contributed to a defense that intercepted 11 passes and recovered four fumbles.

He was responsible for one of the youngest and most inexperienced position groups on the Black Knights.

Corless helped mentor Timpf, a first-year contributor who led the team with 117 tackles, 79 solo stops and 14.5 tackles for losses. Timpf ranked seventh nationally in solo tackles per game with 6.6, 23rd in the country in tackles per game at 9.8 and was honored on three postseason all-star teams.

He also assisted the development of King, a first-year starter who was third on the team with 63 tackles despite missing one game due to injury.

In addition, freshmen Tyler L'Hommedieu and Scott Washle along with sophomore Sean McBryde developed into consistent contributors.

Prior to Army, Corless spent two seasons at Georgia Southern. In 2012, he guided linebackers and then served as co-defensive coordinator with Jack Curtin in 2013.

The 2012 squad advanced to the FCS national semifinals and the 2013 squad beat Florida, but was not eligible for postseason play as the Eagles made the jump to FBS.

Prior to joining the Georgia Southern staff, Corless spent nine years at Arkansas State. He was the co-defensive coordinator for the first seven years before handling the defense solely his last two seasons. In addition, he oversaw the linebackers and punt return units.

During his tenure at Arkansas State, the defense finished among the top-40 FBS programs in at least one defensive category each season.

Rivals.com named Corless the Sun Belt 'Defensive Coordinator of the Year' for the accomplishments of his 2009 Red Wolves' defense. That season capped a four-year run that saw the defense claim either first or second in each of the league's five major defensive statistical categories. ASU finished the 2008 season ranked in the top 20 for redzone defense and tackles for loss, but it was the upset of Texas A&M that earned national attention as linebacker Ben Owens intercepted an Aggie pass late in the game for the win.

In Corless' first season in 2002, ASU finished second in the Sun Belt Conference in five different categories, while the 2002 and 2004 squads posted national statistical rankings. The 2005 team won a Sun Belt championship and played in the New Orleans Bowl.

Corless has guided seven players who have been selected in the NFL draft since 1998, including second-round choice Tyrell Johnson, the 2007 Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Corless mentored Alex Carrington to the league's top defensive honor and a third-round selection by the Buffalo Bills. DeMario Davis is the most recent of Corless' charges to be drafted when he was chosen in the third round by the New York Jets in 2012. He guided 10 All-Sun Belt Conference linebackers and three Freshmen All-America choices.

Corless was at Northwestern State in 1995 as a defensive line coach and was elevated to co-defensive coordinator in 1999 with oversight of the linebackers during his final three seasons. Northwestern State made NCAA FCS playoff appearances in 1997, 1998 and 2001 and won two Southland Conference titles.

DAVID CORLEY

ASSISTANT COACH

WIDE RECEIVERS

1ST SEASON

WILLIAM & MARY, 2002

David Corley is in his first season with the Army football program and is an assistant coach with the wide receivers.

He joined the Army staff after a three-year stint at Connecticut, where he was the offensive coordinator/running backs coach, and served as the Director of Player Engagement. During his time in Storrs, Conn., he also worked as the special teams coordinator/wide receivers coach.

Most recently with the Huskies in 2016, Corley mentored junior Arkeel Newsome to a team leading 715 rushing yards on 147 carries with five touchdowns. Newsome was also the second-leading receiver with 25 receptions for 273 yards and two touchdowns. He finished the season with over 1,400 all-purpose yards.

In Corley's lone season as the wide receivers coach at UConn, Noel Thomas more than doubled his production from the previous year. Thomas led the team in receptions with 54 for 719 yards and three touchdowns. He had a career-high seven receptions in three games. Against nationally ranked Houston, he had two touchdown receptions and 108 yards receiving. He was named the American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Week for his efforts. He was also selected to the 2015 Division I All-New England Team by the New England Football Writers' Association. Corley led the Huskies punt return defense to a Top-20 national ranking during that season as well.

In 2014, Corley coached Newsome on special teams to 36 returns for 730 yards, a 20.3 return average. His total kick return and kick return yardage ranked fourth in UConn's single-season history. Newsome was a solid contributor on the ground as well, averaging 4.0 yards per rush. He became the first true UConn freshman to accumulate over 1,000 all-purpose yards since Terry Caulley did so in 2002.

Prior to his tenure at UConn, Corley spent six seasons (2008-2013) on the staff at William & Mary. He worked the first two seasons as the running backs coach before tutoring the quarterbacks the next three years. In 2013, his final year with the Tribe, he served as the wide receivers coach and passing game coordinator. During that season, Corley helped Tre McBride earn First Team All-CAA recognition, making him the first Tribe wide receiver to be named to the first team in over a decade.

In his two years working with the running backs at William & Mary, he groomed tailback Jonathan Grimes into one of the nation's top players at the FCS level. Grimes set freshman records for both rushing and all-purpose yards and was named an honorable mention All-American as a return specialist. Grimes follow-up sophomore campaign moved him into the program's career top-10 lists in rushing yards and rushing touchdowns in just his second season. He eventually graduated as the most decorated player in Colonial Athletic Association history with 11 all-conference honors.

A 2002 graduate of William & Mary, Corley played professionally in the Canadian Football League with the Hamilton Tiger Cats (2003) and Calgary Stampeders (2006). He also was a member of the Arena Football League's New York Dragons (2005).

Corley excelled as a four-year starter at quarterback for William & Mary from 1999 through 2002 and garnered multiple all-conference honors during his tenure. He wrote his name in nearly every significant passing record for the school, including graduating as the Tribe's all-time leader in passing yards (9,805), total offense (10,948) and touchdown passes (73).

Corley began his playing career by earning the league's Rookie of the Year honors after the 1999 season, where he started the final eight games of the Tribe's schedule. He twice led the league in passing efficiency (1999 and 2002) and earned postseason honors in each of his final four years.

Corley played an important role in helping lead the team to a conference title in 2001 and was selected as the squad's captain for the 2002 season. He was named as the College's Outstanding Senior Athlete for the 2002-03 school year and was a two-time runner up for the prestigious Dudley Award, presented annually to the outstanding collegiate player in the state of Virginia. He became a member of the William & Mary Athletics Hall of Fame in 2014.

Corley and his wife Brianne have a daughter, Charlie, and son, Bishop.

DARYL DIXON

ASSISTANT COACH
OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS
2ND SEASON
FLORIDA, 2003

Daryl Dixon returns to the Army football staff for his second season as the outside linebackers coach.

Dixon tutored outside linebackers Alex Aukerman and Kenneth Brinson in 2016 to 59 and 45 tackles, respectively. Aukerman led the team in sacks with 7.5 and tackles for loss with 15, while Brinson was vital in passing situations with two interceptions.

Dixon was part of a defensive staff that guided Army to fourth in the nation in total defense, sixth against the pass and 16th versus the run.

Dixon came to West Point after seven seasons at Ball State as an assistant coach, where he tutored outside linebackers, cornerbacks and safeties throughout his stint with the Cardinals. He was on the Ball State staff for a pair of bowl games, including the Beef 'O' Brady's Bowl St. Petersburg after the 2012 season and the GoDaddy Bowl after the 2013 campaign.

During his time at Ball State, Dixon tutored Eric Patterson to All-Mid-American Conference Third Team honors in 2012 and Jamill Smith to third team honors as a punt return specialist in 2012 as well. In addition, Dixon coached Sean Baker, who finished his career at Ball State as the program's leader in interceptions with 18. He also tutored 2010 second team All-MAC defensive back Jason Pinkston.

He was named ESPN MAC Recruiter of the Year in 2012 and ranked as the No. 2 MAC recruiter by 24/7 Sports in 2012.

Prior to the Cardinals, Dixon spent the 2008 season as a graduate assistant with the defensive line at Illinois. He started his coaching career as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Illinois from Feb. 2006 through Jan. 2008.

- Tutored five All-Mid-American Conference honorees, including Willie Sneed, who was a two-time first-team selection

Dixon is a 2003 graduate of the University of Florida, where he starred as a defensive back. He played 49 games with 25 starts for the Gators and was a team captain as a senior. He was named to the 2003 All-Southeastern Conference Second Team and reached four bowl games with Florida. Off the field, he was a two-time Academic All-SEC selection and was voted Florida's Male Outstanding Senior Leader among the entire student body for the fall of 2003 graduating class.

Following graduation, Dixon spent two seasons (2004 and 2005) as a member of the Indianapolis Colts.

JOHN LOOSE

ASSISTANT COACH
SAFETIES
12TH SEASON
ITHACA, 1987

John Loose is in his second stint with the Army Football program and 12th season overall at West Point.

Prior to West Point, Loose spent 14 seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Lafayette. Before that, he coached the junior varsity team, linebackers, outside linebackers and secondary during an eight-season stint on the banks of the Hudson. He returned in 2013 and now coaches the safeties.

Last year, he tutored senior Xavier Moss and junior Rhyen England to 57 and 53 tackles, respectively. The pair also had two interceptions on the year. Moss led the team with five pass breakups. Moss had an interception and a forced fumble in the win over Navy in 2016.

Loose was part of a defensive staff that guided Army to fourth in the nation in total defense and sixth against the pass. Army improved from six interceptions in 2015 to 17 in 2016.

In 2015, Loose mentored Moss in his transition to the secondary after spending two seasons on the offensive side of the ball. Moss was third on the team with 67 tackles and had one interception and five pass breakups.

England had 64 tackles in 2015 under Loose with three tackles for loss, four pass breakups and a fumble recovery.

During the 2014 season, Loose mentored a young safeties group. Hayden Pierce, the lone senior starter, registered 45 tackles, despite missing a game. Pierce broke up three passes. Junior Luke Proulx made 28 tackles in eight games and classmate Michael McFadden competed in nine contests.

Under Loose's guidance, Lafayette consistently was among the top-25 defenses in the Football Championship Subdivision. In the 2013 season, Lafayette topped rival and 15th ranked Lehigh 50-28 and advanced to the national playoffs. In 2012, Lafayette featured four All-Patriot League selections, while the 2010 squad boasted three all-league choices.

The American Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year in 2008, Loose and his wife, Marianne, started Lauren's First and Goal Foundation. The organization was founded in 2004 and raises money for pediatric brain tumor research. The Foundation has generated more than $2 million and blossomed into the largest one-day football clinic in the country.

Among the many all-stars Loose has coached is Andy Romans, a two-time Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year who helped the Leopards finish the 2008 season eighth in the nation in scoring defense (17.6 points per game), 10th in rushing defense (just 92.2 yards per game) and 20th in total defense at 303.2 yards per contest.

Lafayette boasted the top defense in the nation in 2007. Under Loose's leadership, Lafayette allowed an NCAA-best 260.9 yards per game and ranked fourth in rushing defense at 85.7 yards per game.

The Leopards led the Patriot League in rushing defense in 2006 at 139 yards per contest, while the 2005 team ranked in the top 20 in five categories.

Linebacker Maurice Bennett helped pace the defense prior to his graduation in 2006, was a finalist for the Buchanan Award and was chosen as an All-American by five organizations. Blake Costanzo played linebacker the same season and just completed his eighth year in the NFL, most recently with the Chicago Bears.

Loose coached at Army for eight seasons under Bob Sutton. In 1996, Army ranked sixth nationally in rushing defense during a 10-2 campaign that included an appearance in the Independence Bowl.

Prior to his time at Army, Loose worked as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy.

Loose started his coaching career at the University of Albany in 1987 where he coached the secondary and earned his Masters in Program Development and Evaluation.

Loose was a track and field star at Ithaca Col-

SEAN SATURNIO

ASSISTANT COACH
SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
4TH SEASON
HAWAII, 1992

Sean Saturnio, who is in his fourth season as a member of the Army Football coaching staff, entered his second year as the special teams coordinator in 2016.

Last year, Saturnio took over the special teams for the first time at West Point. He mentored Blake Wilson, Nick Schrage and J.D. Mote in the kicking game in their first full season. Rookie Malik McGue averaged eight yards per punt return and had a season-long 58-yard return at Wake Forest.

Saturnio spent his first two seasons coaching the fullbacks. In 2015, he mentored Aaron Kemper into Army's top rusher with 544 yards on the ground and three touchdowns. Kemper had a pair of 100-yard rushing games, including 140 yards against Eastern Michigan.

Under Saturnio, Matt Giachinta gained 286 yards and scored a touchdown as a senior. He was named to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Society and was a finalist for the Pop Warner Award.

In his first season at Army, Saturnio helped mentor 1,000-yard rusher Larry Dixon who topped the 3,000-yard mark for his career. Dixon was named to three postseason all-star teams and competed in the East-West Shrine Game. Saturnio also coached Giachinta, Kemper and Richie Smith, all key parts of a rushing attack that was third in the country at 296.5 yards per game.

He also oversaw the punters and helped Alex Tardieu average 39.3 yards on 44 punts. Tardieu pinned the opponent inside the 20-yard line on 18 occasions and totaled six kicks of 50 yards or more.

Saturnio came to West Point following two seasons at Georgia Southern, where he coached the tight ends and assisted Brent Davis with the offensive line.

In addition, he coached the punters and coordinated the punt return team.

Saturnio also had responsibility as the Director of Player Development in 2011 before assuming coaching responsibilities.

In 2012, Saturnio helped wide receiver/tight end Tyler Sumner collect honors on Phil Steels's 2012 All-Southern Conference squad.

A native of Hilo, Hawaii, Saturnio spent nine sea-

Saturnio was an assistant for two seasons before taking over as head coach at Waipahu where his team qualified for the playoffs in six of nine seasons. He was named the OIA Division I Coach of the Year for the Western Division in 2008 and OIA Division II Coach of the Year in 2004.

Saturnio began his collegiate playing career at Division III Beloit College in Wisconsin before transferring to the University of Hawai'i. He was a walk-on for the Warriors and earned a spot on the team as a wide receiver. He earned his degree in elementary education in 1992.

Saturnio and his wife, Sharon, were married in 2014. He has two children, Christina and Isaiah. The family resides at West Point. He welcomed his first grandchild, Maya, in 2015.

TODD SPENCER

ASSISTANT COACH
OFFENSIVE LINE
2ND SEASON
PACIFIC LUTHERAN, 1979

One of the foremost offensive line coaches in the nation, Todd Spencer rejoined the Army West Point staff prior to spring practice in 2016. Working with option offenses for the majority of his career, Spencer brings more than three decades of experience to the Black Knights' program.

Spencer was on the Army coaching staff from the spring of 2013 until the conclusion of the 2015 season.

Spencer is in his 30th season in coaching, including 23 years as an offensive line coach at the Division I level. Prior to his arrival at West Point, he spent four seasons as the co-offensive line coach at Georgia Tech where he worked primarily with the tackles from 2008-11. In his four seasons in Atlanta, his linemen earned six All-ACC certificates, including four first-team selections. The Yellow Jackets led the ACC in total offense in 2008 and 2009 while running the triple-option offense. The team led the nation in rushing for the first time in school history in 2010 after a runner-up showing in 2009.

Named one of the top five offensive line coaches in the nation by CBSSports.com in the summer of 2008, Spencer is well versed both in the option attack and service-academy football. Prior to joining the staff at Georgia Tech, he spent 11 seasons as the offensive line coach at Navy. The Mids won the Commander In Chief's Trophy and made postseason appearances in each of his last four seasons. Navy led the nation in rushing four times during his tenure in Annapolis, including three straight years from 2005-07. In addition to posting the top-ranked rushing offense, the 2003 squad set school records for total rushing yards (4,202), yards per attempt (5.5), rushing touchdowns (44), total offense (5,506), total offense per game (423.5) and yards per play (6.0).

Prior to his arrival at Navy, Spencer was the offensive line coach at Oregon State from 1991-96. The team finished second in the nation in rushing in 1993, averaging 300.6 yards per game.

Spencer also served one-year stints as the offensive line coach at Northern Illinois (1990) and UTEP (1989). He was the offensive coordinator at Southern Utah University in 1988 and held the same position at Trinity Valley Community College in 1986-87. Spencer began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Texas Lutheran University working with wide receivers in 1979. He also served as a defensive graduate assistant at Linfield College for two seasons (1980-81). After a two-year run as a high school assistant in Texas, Spencer re-entered the collegiate ranks as a graduate assistant at Oregon where he worked with the defensive backs in 1984. In 1985, he held his first offensive line post, serving as the graduate assistant at the University of Texas.

Spencer played defensive back at Whitworth College and Pacific Lutheran University, earning bachelor's degree in physical education from the latter in 1979. A Beaverton, Ore., native, Spencer went on to earn a master's degree from Linfield in 1981.

He is the father of two daughters, Whitney and Ashley.

MIKE VITI

ASSISTANT COACH
FULLBACKS
2ND SEASON
USMA, 2008

Former fullback Mike Viti, a 2008 West Point graduate, is in his second season as an assistant coach working with the fullbacks.

In 2016, he tutored Andy Davidson to over 900 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns. The 12 scores were the most by an Army player since Trent Steelman had 12 in 2011. Davidson finished with five 100-yard rushing games, including 121 yards and two scores in the season-opening win over Temple.

Viti also worked with Darnell Woolfolk, who rushed for 600 yards on 109 carries and nine touchdowns. He had 119 yards and two scores against North Texas in the Heart of Dallas Bowl. Woolfolk had a big day at UTEP with three touchdowns with 71 yards.

Viti spent the 2015 season as the Director of High School and Alumni Relations before having an on-field role as an assistant coach.

Viti earned four varsity letters and in addition to his role as team captain, he also served as a Regimental Commander during his senior year.

A powerful blocker, Viti helped open holes for a talented rushing attack. He carried the ball 91 times over his four-year career for 321 yards and three scores. He also caught 30 passes for 198 yards.

Following graduation, Viti served a deployment in Afghanistan in support of Operation Enduring Freedom.

After retiring from the military as a captain, Viti embarked on Mike's Hike For Heroes, a cross country trek where he walked one kilometer for every service member killed in action in the global war on terror. He concluded the walk covering 7,100 kilometers or 4,400 miles beginning in Washington and wrapping up at the Army-Navy Game presented by USAA in Baltimore, Md.

Viti has a wife Laura and they reside at West Point.

MITCH WARE

ASSISTANT COACH

QUARTERBACKS

4TH SEASON

S.W. MISSOURI STATE, 1980

Mitch Ware is in his fourth season as a member of the Army Football program where he is responsible for the quarterbacks.

Last year, Ware coached Ahmad Bradshaw to 824 yards rushing and over 700 yards passing in his junior season. Bradshaw orchestrated an 80-yard gamewinning drive against Navy in the fourth quarter to give Army its first win since 2001. Bradshaw also ran for 129 yards against North Texas in the Heart of Dallas Bowl, which was a bowl record and the second-most rushing yards by a quarterback in the history of the Cotton Bowl Stadium.

In 2015, Ware tutored three different quarterbacks that started a game for the Black Knights. Bradshaw and Chris Carter made their Army debuts in 2015 and both ran and threw for 100 yards in their first start as a Black Knight. A.J. Schurr filled in against Eastern Michigan and led Army to its best offensive output in its history with over 600 yards of offense.

In his first season at Army West Point, Ware helped lead a rushing offense that ranked fifth in the country at 296.5 yards per contest. Under Ware's tutelage, Angel Santiago and Schurr combined for 13 rushing touchdowns. Santiago was second on the squad with 814 rushing yards, while Schurr gained 320. The duo combined to complete 47 of 98 passes with a touchdown pass apiece.

Ware came to West Point from Georgia Southern where he was assistant head coach in 2012, his eighth season on the Eagles' staff. During his tenure in Statesboro, Ga., Ware was responsible for coaching the quarterbacks.

During the 2013 campaign, Ware mentored quarterback Jerick McKinnon to a tremendous season and an invitation to a showcase bowl event. McKinnon, despite playing in only 10 games, led the team in rushing attempts (161), rushing yards (1,050) and touchdowns (12). He averaged 105 yards per contest and 6.5 yards per carry and was invited to the prestigious Senior Bowl. He connected on 8-of-17 passes for 171 yards with four touchdowns and just one interception.

McKinnon concluded his career third all-time on the Georgia Southern career rushing list with 3,899 yards. Backup quarterback Kevin Ellison was second on the squad with 127 rushing attempts for 886 yards. He completed 41-of-79 passes for 756 yards and two scores.

Ware helped Georgia Southern to three-straight trips to the national semifinals and an upset win at Florida.

Ware served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2002-05 and helped Georgia Southern lead the FCS in rushing offense in all four seasons. In his first season, Ware developed first-year starter Chaz Williams into an Associated Press All-America selection and finalist for the prestigious Walter Payton Award. From his quarterback position, Williams ran for 1,422 yards and 27 touchdowns while being named conference player of the year. Fullback Jeremaine Austin, another first-year starter, rushed for 1,416 yards and was named conference rookie of the year.

The following season, Georgia Southern averaged 335.6 rushing yards per game and led the nation as Austin earned Player of the Year and All-America honors. He

In 2004, Georgia Southern again led the country in rushing at 369.9 yards per contest and ranked third nationally in yards per game.

Prior to his work with Georgia Southern, Ware coached at Navy for four seasons. While in Annapolis, Md., Ware guided Brian Madden, who nearly rushed for and passed for 1,000 yards with 905 yards on the ground and 902 through the air.

Ware spent 16 seasons at Southwest Missouri State (now Missouri State) where he was a player, assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Ware was a four-year starter and co-captain as a quarterback at Southwest Missouri State. He helped

TUCKER WAUGH

ASSISTANT COACH
SLOT BACKS
16TH SEASON
DePAUW, 1993

Tucker Waugh is in his 16th season as a member of the Army Football coaching staff. After serving as wide receivers coach in 2014, Waugh returns to coach the slotbacks for the third season.

Waugh coached at Army from 2000-04, departed for Stanford and returned to West Point after coaching the wide receivers in California.

Under Waugh's guidance, Army has been among the nation's top rushing teams in each of the last six years.

Last year, Army was ranked second in the nation in rushing offense and was helped by slot backs Jordan Asberry, Kell Walker and Tyler Campbell. Asberry led the group with 421 yards and five touchdowns. Walker came on strong at the end of the year and proved to be pivotal in wins over Navy and North Texas at the Heart of Dallas Bowl. Campbell was steady all season with 326 yards on the ground and two scores.

In 2015, he guided then sophomore John Trainor to an average of 8.7 yards per carry and two rushing touchdowns. Trainor was also Army's top receiver out of the backfield with eight catches for 176 yards and a touchdown. Joe Walker racked up 203 yards on the ground on 27 carries that season as well.

Waugh tutored a pair of rookies in Asberry and Campbell that made significant contributions throughout the 2015 season. Asberry had 30 carries for 213 yards, while Campbell had 118 yards on 17 rushes, including a 29-yard touchdown run in the Army-Navy Game.

In 2013, Army racked up 3,950 yards rushing and 4,678 yards of total offense. Waugh mentored freshman wide receiver Xavier Moss, who established an Army freshman record with 35 receptions. The total shattered the previous mark of 20 set by Jeremy Trimble in 2004, which was also set under Waugh's guidance. Moss led the team with an Army freshman record of 463 receiving yards.

Waugh has also mentored two-time 1,000-yard rusher Raymond Maples, one of just three players to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark twice in their career, and was part of the 2010 staff that led Army to a victory in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl.

In 2008, Waugh's first season coaching running backs in Army's triple-option system, he guided full-back Collin Mooney to a record-breaking season of 1,339 yards. Mooney had just 22 rushing yards prior to establishing the Academy single-season record.

Waugh was a member of Bobby Ross' coaching staff and then departed the Academy to work with head coach Walt Harris at Stanford in 2005.

At Stanford, Waugh coached NFL All-Pro Richard Sherman to Freshman All-America honors as a wide receiver with the Cardinal. He had 34 catches for 581 yards during the 2006 season and

In 2008, Waugh was recognized as one of the up-and-coming assistants in the nation. He was chosen to attend the NCAA Expert Coaches Forum in Dallas, Texas. The Forum is designed to improve and reinforce various aspects of securing, managing and excelling in head football coaching positions at the intercollegiate level. In 2009, Rivals.com named Waugh one of its top 10 recruiters among all non-Bowl Championship Series schools.

When Waugh first arrived at Army, he inherited a group of receivers that had caught a total of 14 career passes. Over the next three years, his Black Knight wideouts registered 322 receptions. During that time, he oversaw the development of Aaron Alexander, who graduated in 2005 and ranks second on Army's career charts for both receptions and receiving yards. Waugh mentored Alexander to an Academy-record 64 catches in 2003. His 861 receiving yards that season rank third on the Army ledger.

Prior to arriving at West Point, Waugh coached for five seasons at Illinois State (1995-99). He worked with the Redbirds' outside linebackers in 1995, running backs in 1996 and wide receivers his final three years. He mentored an All-Gateway Conference selection during each of his three seasons as receivers coach, with Marquis Mosely earning recognition in 1997 and Ricky Garrett copping laurels in both 1998 and 1999.

Waugh helped to establish the Redbirds' passing attack as one of the most prolific in the nation. Illinois State advanced to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs in 1998 and reached the Division I-AA national semifinals in 1999.

A 1993 graduate of DePauw University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in English Composition and Physical Education, Waugh began his coaching career at Otterbein College in 1993 overseeing the Cardinals' quarterbacks. He returned to his alma mater in 1994 as a wide receivers coach. He also completed a coaching fellowship with the British Columbia Lions of the Canadian Football League.

Waugh lettered at quarterback while playing at DePauw from 1990 to 1992 and was named the school's "Outstanding Physical Education Major."

Waugh resides at West Point with his wife, Jen, and sons, Jackson and Nicholas.

CHAD WILT

ASSISTANT COACH
DEFENSIVE LINE
2ND SEASON
TAYLOR, 2000

Chad Wilt enters his second season with the Black Knights as the defensive line coach.

In his first season at Army, Wilt tutored John Voit to six tackles for loss along with three sacks and 26 total tackles. As a unit, the defensive line helped Army allowed only 3.9 yards per rush and ranked 18th in the nation in rushing defense at 121 yards per game allowed.

Wilt arrived at West Point after two seasons at the University of Maryland as the defensive line coach with the Terrapins.

In 2015, the defensive line under Wilt totaled 31.5 of the teams 35 sacks, which ranked 14th in the country. Two players from the line were selected in the 2016 National Football League Draft. Yannick Ngakoue was a third round selection by the Jacksonville Jaguars and Quinton Jefferson was picked by the Seattle Seahawks in the fifth round.

Ngakoue set the school record for sacks in a season with 13.5 and was second in the nation. He was named first team All-Big Ten. Jefferson was named honorable mention All-Big Ten under Wilt and was selected to play in the Reese's Senior Bowl.

In his first season at Maryland, Wilt tutored one of the best pass rushers in school history in Andre Monroe. The senior totaled 10.5 sacks to finish second in the Big Ten and earned second team all-conference honors from the media and honorable mention all-conference honors from the league's coaches. Monroe set the school's all-time sack record with 25.0.

Wilt also helped nose tackle Darius Kilgo achieve career highs in tackles (43) and tackles for loss (8.0). The senior finished the season tied for first in the Big Ten with four fumble recoveries and earned honorable mention All-Big Ten recognition from the media.

Kilgo was selected in the 2015 NFL Draft by the Denver Broncos. It marked the second straight year a player coached by Wilt was chosen in the NFL Draft. Jonathan Newsome, who Wilt coached at Ball State, was picked in the 2014 NFL Draft and was second in the NFL among rookies with 6.5 sacks in 2014.

Prior to Maryland, he spent three seasons as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Ball State. He worked with a defensive unit that improved each of his three seasons in Muncie, Ind.

In his final season at Ball State, the Cardinals improved from 13th in total defense in the MAC in 2011 to seventh in 2013. In addition, the Cardinals' rushing defense and sack totals improved each year. The Cardinals ranked 13th in the MAC in Wilt's first season before improving to seventh in total defense, while the sacks totals increased from 16 (2011) to 27 (2013).

Jonathan Newsome was named to the All-Mid-American Conference first team after he finished with 10 sacks, the second highest total in the MAC, and 11.5 tackles for loss.

Defensive tackle Nathan Ollie joined Newsome on the All-MAC squad. Ollie earned second-team honors after posting 10.0 TFL as the Cardinals earned a berth to the GoDaddy Bowl.

In 2012, Wilt helped Newsome garner second team all-conference accolades after ranking fourth in the MAC with 8.5 sacks and racking up 12.5 TFL, while Ollie picked up third-team honors after being named to the second team in 2011. The Cardinals concluded the season with a trip to the Beef 'O' Brady Bowl.

Prior to his stint with Ball State, Wilt spent one season with the University of Richmond as a defensive line coach and helped Martin Parker earn All-American honors after totaling 14 TFL and 5.5 sacks.

Following the 2010 season, Parker was named the most valuable player on defense in the East-West Shrine Bowl and was signed as an undrafted free agent by the New Giants. Parker would help the franchise win Super Bowl XLVI before his career was cut short due to injury.

Wilt coached the defensive line during the 2009 season at Virginia. He oversaw the development of All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection Nate Collins, who signed with the Chicago Bears prior to the start of the 2010 NFL season.

PATRICK TRESEY

QUALITY CONTROL COACH
2ND SEASON
COLLEGE OF MOUNT ST. JOSEPH, 2011

Patrick Tresey enters his second season on the Army West Point football staff as the offensive quality control coach.

Tresey came to West Point after two years at Kenyon College. In 2015, he was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach and was promoted to that position after a year as the wide receiver coach and passing game coordinator.

The Lords were first in the North Coast Athletic Conference in sacks against and time of possession under Tresey as offensive coordinator. In his first year, he set up a passing game that allowed starting quarterback Jake Bates to set the Kenyon single-season record for completion percentage.

Prior to Kenyon, he spent two seasons at nearby Ashland University, where he worked with the Eagles offense as a graduate assistant. In those two seasons, the Eagles posted a combined 16-6 record and averaged over 35 points and 417 yards per game.

Prior to his stint at Ashland, Tresey spent a season as the offensive graduate assistant coach at UCLA. In that role he assisted in preparation of the weekly game plan, organized and coached the defensive scout team, prepared and reviewed film with the offensive staff, updated and maintained the offensive play-book, and directed tight end meetings during bowl practice week.

Tresey got his start in coaching at his alma mater, College of Mount St. Joseph in 2010. He was an offensive assistant with that program. He also collected previous coaching experience at a number of football camps, including The Ohio State Football Camp for four years.

During his playing days at College of Mount St. Joseph, Tresey was named to both all-conference and all-academic teams. He graduated in 2011 with a degree in sports management.

SCOTT SWANSON

HEAD COACH
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
22ND SEASON
WAKE FOREST, 1992

An important cog in the physical development of Army's varsity athletes, Scott Swanson is in his 22nd year at Army West Point. He served as an Assistant Athletic Director/Director of Strength and Conditioning.

A 1992 graduate of Wake Forest University, Swanson spent the 1995 and 1996 football campaigns as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Army before departing to serve in the same capacity at Stanford University. He returned one year later in 1998 to take over the Black Knights' head job.

Since his return to the Academy, Army has captured countless league championships and sent numerous teams to postseason competition, while Black Knight athletes have secured a host of All-America certificates since 1998.

Swanson oversees the unique task of training cadet-athletes at West Point. He directs the training of 1,000 athletes, operates three weight rooms and manages five off-site facilities throughout the country during summer assignments.

The Parkersburg, W.Va., native was instrumental in the development of Army's vast strength development center housed in the Kimsey Athletic Center, which opened in April 2003. The Kimsey Athletic Center houses coaches' offices, spacious locker rooms, equipment rooms, an athletic training area, meeting space and an athletic hall of fame area. But perhaps the crown jewel of the building is its 20,000-square-foot strength development center that is under Swanson's direction.

This area features state-of-the-art equipment to accentuate the overall development of a host of Army athletes, but most notably serves football.

His main duty is overseeing the total strength and conditioning program for Army's 28 intercollegiate sports programs and directly oversees men's basketball and lacrosse.

Swanson is a Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association and was named a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach in 2005. He is also a CGFI, CrossFit Level 1 instructor and member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association. Swanson resides at West Point with his son, Thor.

AAIRON SAVAGE

QUALITY CONTROL COACH
1ST SEASON
AUBURN, 2008

Aairon Savage joined the Army football staff for his first season as defensive quality control coach.

In 2016, Savage coached sophomore safety Que' Rose to his second All GAC safety honor at Arkansas Tech. The 2016 year marked the first time in ten seasons that the Wonder Boys turned in back-to-back winning seasons. The Wonder Boys finished 3rd in the GAC in total defense with 10 interceptions.

In his first campaign at Arkansas Tech, Savage mentored a secondary led by 2nd Team GAC freshman safety Que' Rose while the Wonder Boys defense finish in the top 25 nationally. The Wonder Boys defense did its best work against highly-rated opposition, holding the nation's second-, third-, and 12th-ranked offense to 125 yards below their season averages. The Wonder Boys picked up a big win in the Heart of Texas Bowl to cap a 9-3 campaign in 2015 with the second ranked defense in the conference. The resulting nine-win campaign was only the ninth time in school history that the nine-win threshold has been met, and ranks as the fourth-highest win total in school history.

Savage previously spent a season as a graduate assistant at Georgia Tech, working on the defensive side of the ball with primary responsibility for the safeties. The Yellow Jackets finished the year 10-3 capped off with an Orange Bowl victory.

In 2013, Savage was an assistant coach at Valdosta High School coaching the corner backs, where he was also a ninth-grade teacher. The Wildcats earned a playoff spot in the GHSA football playoffs.

The previous two years, Savage was on the staff at Auburn University. He was the Special Teams Quality Control in 2011 as the Tigers were Chik-Fli-A Bowl Champions. In 2012 Savage served as Defensive Quality Control.

Savage was a Freshman All-SEC and Freshman All-American (Rivals) defensive back in 2006 at Auburn. He missed all of the 2008 and 2009 seasons with injuries. In the national title season of 2010, Savage started the first seven games before a season-ending injury.

Savage earned his bachelor's degree from Auburn in 2008 (Exercise Science) and his master's (Biomechanics) in 2010. He is married to the former Coleigh Danielle Brock.

BRIAN HESS

HEAD COACH
FOOTBALL STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
1ST SEASON
SPRINGFIELD, 2008

Brian Hess begins his second season on staff and first as Army West Point's head football strength and conditioning coach.

Hess was promoted to the head coach position after joining the staff as an assistant in the summer of 2016.

Hess spent the last two seasons as the head strength and conditioning coach at Sam Houston State. He worked with six different teams with the Bearkats, including football, volleyball, women's basketball, tennis, bowling and the throwers of the track and field squad.

Prior to Sam Houston State, he was at Delaware, where Hess was responsible for the strength and conditioning efforts for more than 575 student-athletes that were members of the Blue Hens' 21 sports programs.

A native of Kingston, Mass., Hess earned his degree in applied exercise science from Springfield (Mass.) College in 2008.

After beginning his college career at Trinity College, he moved on to Springfield and was a two-year starter at linebacker for the football team, serving as team captain in 2007. His junior senior in 2006, Hess helped lead the team to a 10-2 record and a berth in the NCAA Division III football playoffs.

He began his coaching career at the University of Iowa under head strength & conditioning coach Chris Doyle where he served as an intern in 2008.

Hess then moved on to Georgetown where he worked one season in 2008-09 with Augie Maurelli, serving as an intern and working with the football, men's and women's basketball, baseball, crew, and women's lacrosse programs. He also designed and lead strength and conditioning programs for the field hockey and sailing teams.

Hess earned his first full-time position at Harvard where he served as an assistant director of strength & conditioning the last two seasons in 2009-11. While at Harvard, he served as the second assistant for football and directed efforts for the track and field, men's and women's soccer, women's lacrosse, women's swimming, Nordic skiing, men's and women's water polo, fencing, and women's tennis teams.

Hess is a certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) with the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association.

CONOR HUGHES

ASSISTANT COACH
FOOTBALL STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
1ST SEASON
SPRINGFIELD, 2008

Conor Hughes begins his first season as an assistant football strength and conditioning coach at West Point.

Hughes comes to Army West Point after spending six seasons at the University at Albany as the Director of Football and Men's Basketball Strength and Conditioning. He was in charge of all physical development for the 2011 and 2012 NEC Championship football teams and the 2013, 2014 and 2015 America East Champion men's basketball team.

Prior to Albany, Hughes was the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach at Iona College in 2010 and implemented all aspects of a training program with all 21 Division I sports at the Gaels. He went to Iona after a stint at Albany as an assistant strength and conditioning coach in early 2010. He worked with women's basketball, women's soccer, men's soccer and the track and field squads.

Following his 2008 graduation from Springfield College, he was an intern with the football strength and conditioning staff at Georgia Southern and then moved on to become a graduate assistant at Albany from 2008 to 2009.

Hughes earned a Applied Exercise Science degree from Springfield and then got his Master's from Albany in Liberal Studies in 2010.

MAURICE SIMS

ASSISTANT COACH
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
1ST SEASON
TENNESSEE CHATTANOOGA, 2010

Maurice Sims joins the football strength and conditioning staff for his first season at Army West Point as an assistant coach.

Sims arrives at West Point following a stint as the Head Sports Performance Coach at Stack Sports Performance and Therapy in Atlanta. He performed assessments on athletes to development training programs and implemented them. Sims also graded and critiqued athletes during their performance. Prior to moving to Stack Sports Performance and Therapy he was a Corporate Wellness and Fitness Manager for the National Institute for Fitness and Sport for two years.

Sims returns to the college ranks for the first time since he was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Indiana in 2014. He was the head of the operations for the development training program and assisted with the development and implementation of sport specific training programs.

Before Indiana, Sims spent a couple of seasons at North Carolina A&T as an Associate Director of Strength and Conditioning. He was the head coach for basketball, baseball, softball and track and field, and assisted with football. Sims also worked at Bethune-Cookman from 2011 to 2012 and worked with basketball, track and field and tennis.

Following his graduation from Chattanooga, Sims was a football strength intern at the University of Tennessee.

Sims earned his degree in Human Health and Performance from Tennessee Chattanooga in 2010 and then got his Master's in Transformative Leadership from Bethune-Cookman in 2012.

SCOTT HOBBS

ASSISTANT COACH
STRENGTH & CONDITIONING
1ST SEASON
ST. MARY'S (LONDON, UK), 2014

Scott Hobbs joined the Army West Point strength and conditioning staff in January 2017.

Before arriving at West Point, Hobbs was at the University of Pennsylvania assisting in the strength and conditioning of all varsity sports, including the Quakers football and women's basketball teams, who were both 2016 Ivy League Champions.

Hobbs graduated with honors from St Mary's University, London (UK) in 2014 with a first-class bachelor's degree in strength and conditioning science, and completed his post-graduate studies in sports rehabilitation.

While at St Mary's he worked as a graduate assistant teaching undergraduate students on the strength and conditioning science degree program, and co-coordinated all varsity sport strength and conditioning provision.

During his time in London, Hobbs worked in premiership rugby, high performance rowing, varsity soccer, and youth weightlifting. He also consulted for an international level sprint hurdler.

In 2012, he studied abroad in the U.S. at DeSales University (PA) as part of his undergraduate degree. During this time, he directed the strength and conditioning for the Bulldogs' men's lacrosse program, who later came fourth in the 2013 MAC Freedom Conference, and interned at Lehigh University primarily with the Mountain Hawks football and tennis teams.

Hobbs is a Registered Strength and Conditioning Coach (RSCC) and Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association, a Level 1 British Weightlifting Coach, a Level 1 USA Track and Field Coach, and First Aid/CPR/AED certified through the American Red Cross.

ARMY AND NAVY WILL MEET FOR THE 118TH TIME ON DECEMBER 9 IN PHILADELPHIA

- ▶ The storied Army-Navy rivalry will enjoy its 118th edition this season when the Black Knights and Midshipmen play on Dec. 9 at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia. Only 10 Division I-A rivalries have featured more games than the Army-Navy series.
- ▶ This revered series began when Cadet Dennis Mahan Michie accepted a “challenge” from Naval Academy Midshipmen for a football game against the Cadets. That first contest was held on “The Plain” at West Point on Nov. 29, 1890. The more experienced Mids, who had been playing organized football since 1879, defeated the Cadets 24-0.
- ▶ Eighty-six of the 117 Army-Navy games have been played within Philadelphia city limits. Last year’s game in Baltimore, Md., marks only the 10th time the Army-Navy Classic was played outside Philadelphia since 1945. The 1983 game was played at the Rose Bowl, while the 1989, 1993, 1997 and 2001 confrontations took place at Giants Stadium. M&T Bank Stadium in Baltimore played host to the classic in 2000, 2007 and 2014. The 2012 at FedEx Field was the first to be hosted by the Washington, D.C. area.
- ▶ There has been 16 different sites since the birth of the series in 1890. Those sites follow: West Point (3, at two locations), Annapolis (3), Palmer Stadium (1), Franklin Field (18), Polo Grounds (9), Baltimore Stadium (2), Soldier Field (1), Yankee Stadium (2), Municipal/John F. Kennedy Stadium (41), Veterans Stadium (17), Rose Bowl (1), Giants Stadium (4), M&T Bank Stadium (2), Lincoln Financial Field (8) and FedEx Field (1).
- ▶ The Army-Navy series has been tied on 13 occasions (five times since 1979). The latest tie came following Navy’s victory in 2004. The Mids’ win in 2005 gave Navy its first edge in the series since 1993. Until winning in 1980 to break a 37-37 stalemate, Navy had not led in the series standing since 1921, after just the 24th meeting between the academies.
- ▶ Further evidence of the rivalry’s competitive nature: only 376 points (3.2 ppg) separate the teams through the Classic’s initial 117 pairings. Navy has scored 1,851 points (15.8), while Army has recorded 1,483 points (12.6).
- ▶ CBS Sports reaffirmed its commitment to broadcasting the storied rivalry to a national audience with a new agreement until 2028. The Army-Navy Game presented by USAA will be the only college football game contested on the second Saturday in December, a departure from its recent history of being played a week earlier opposite several conference championship contests.
- ▶ The United States Military Academy and United States Naval Academy announced in July 2009 that financial services leader USAA signed a 10-year agreement to be the presenting sponsor of the annual Army-Navy football game. USAA is among the premier providers of banking products, insurance, investments, and financial planning to current and former members of the U.S. military and their families – including the Cadets and Midshipmen from the two academies.

Service academy supremacy is at stake on the grid-iron each season when Army, Navy and Air Force battle in a round-robin schedule for the Commander in Chief's Trophy.

This year, the Trophy enters its 45th season as the pre-eminent indicator of football bragging rights among the three major service academies.

Army's most recent Commander in Chief's Trophy title dates back to 1996, when the Black Knights assured that the Trophy would return to its original home by defeating arch-rival Navy 28-24 in Veterans Stadium in Philadelphia.

To help commemorate the Trophy's 25th birthday, President Bill Clinton was on hand at "The Vet" to present the Black Knights with the glimmering silver Trophy following their come-from-behind victory. It marked the first time that a standing President attended an Army-Navy clash since Gerald Ford looked on in 1974 to see Navy defeat Army 19-0.

Former President George W. Bush witnessed the Army-Navy game in person three times during his two terms in office, attending the classic in 2001, 2004 and 2008.

Prior to 1996, Army had last acquired sole possession of the Trophy in 1988. In 1993, each team split its two academy games, marking only the fourth time that all three teams shared possession of the Trophy.

Army captured the inaugural Commander in Chief's Trophy by defeating Air Force, 17-14, and Navy, 23-15, in 1972.

The Trophy has resided at West Point in 1972, 1977, 1984, 1986, 1988 and 1996.

Navy, which ruled the 1970s, has acquired sole ownership of the trophy nine times since 1981. The Midshipmen captured the hardware seven straight seasons from 2003-09 before Air Force claimed the trophy in 2010, 2011 and won it in 2014, after Navy won two-straight.

The Trophy is named in honor of the President of the United States as commander in chief of the armed forces. The three-sided structure, which weighs 170 pounds and stands 2 1/2 feet tall, is engraved with the seal of each academy and displays a reproduction of each school's mascot. The year in which the Trophy is won is engraved on the appropriate academy's side.

The idea for the establishment of an interservice football trophy originated with the late Gen. George B. Simler, commander of the Air Training Command and a former Air Force Academy athletic director. The 1972 season was seen as an appropriate time to consider such an idea since it also marked the first season of the round-robin competition among the three teams.

Simler proposed the idea to the USAFA Association of Graduates early in 1972. The Association, in turn, proposed the project to the alumni associations at West Point and Annapolis as suitable for joint sponsorship by the three institutions. Following formal adoption of the project, designs for the Trophy were sought from manufacturers.

After Army's inaugural title in 1972, Navy captured possession of the Trophy eight of the following nine years before Air Force first staked claim to the honor in 1982. The Trophy remained in the Falcons' possession the following season when they swept the Black Knights and Midshipmen.

Army recaptured the Trophy in 1984, its first outright title since 1977.

The Black Knights begin the quest for this year's CIC title on Nov. 4 when they host Air Force. Army will square off against Navy on Dec. 9 in Philadelphia.

A // A // A // AACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

Twenty-one different Army players (earning 21 different honors) have been named an Academic All-American since the program's inception in 1952. In 2014, Terry Baggett was a first-team selection and Thomas Holloway made the second team in 2013. It was the third time out of the last six seasons, Army had two players on the Academic All-America Team. The first since Andrew Rodriguez and Zach Watts achieved the honor in 2011. The Black Knights have produced seven Academic All-Americans in the last seven seasons. Rodriguez and Watts were both first-team selections.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Twenty-three different Black Knights have garnered 32 Academic All-District I citations since 1989. Army has been represented on the District I club in 20 of the last 25 years. Since its inception in 2007, the Black Knights have had 20 players named to the National Football Foundation Hampshire Society, including a program record six selections in 2011. The program honors players who complete their eligibility with at least a 3.2 grade point average. In 2010, Army was the only service academy to place two players on the list, and its six selections in 2011 were also the most by a service academy.

ALMA MATER

The most beloved of all West Point songs, "Alma Mater" had its beginnings as a furlough song in 1908. It was sung at the Baccalaureate Service on June 9, 1912, and took its place as a musical expression of the feelings of every West Pointer toward his alma mater. It is sung by the football team and Corps of Cadets at the conclusion of every football game. The lyrics were changed in 2008 in order to make the song gender-neutral and better reflect the sacrifices and contributions made by West Point's female graduates.

AMERICAN FORCES NETWORK

American Forces Network (AFN) will carry the Army West Point Sports Network broadcast of the 2017 Army-Navy football game, presented by USAA. Part of American Forces Radio and Television Service (AFRTS), the American Forces Network provides stateside radio programming to American servicemen and servicewomen, Department of Defense civilians and family members serving outside the continental United States. AFN will also carry the CBS Sports television broadcast of the contest.

2011 ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICAN ZACH WATTS

ANDERSON, BOB

One of the great names in Army football history, Bob Anderson received the highest honor bestowed by his sport when he was elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 2004. One of 14 Army players to earn All-America honors on two occasions, Anderson graduated from West Point in 1960 as one of the finest running backs in the Black Knights' long, illustrious history. Named to All-America squads during his sophomore (1957) and junior (1958) campaigns, Anderson appeared headed for a third consecutive citation before an injury shortened his senior season. Only three Army West Point players have earned All-America honors three times. Anderson was elected to the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2006.

ARMED FORCES BOWL

Army made its return to the postseason in 2010 with a 16-14 victory over SMU in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl. Until the 2016 season, it marked the first time Army played in a bowl game since 1996 and the program's first bowl victory since a 1985 Peach Bowl win over Illinois. Stephen Anderson was named the Black Knights' Most Outstanding Player after recording 14 tackles and intercepting a pass in his final collegiate game.

ARMY-NAVY

One of the most revered rivalries in all of sports will be revisited on Dec. 9, 2017, when Army and Navy clash in the service academies' 117th grid battle hosted by Philadelphia, Pa. As part of a new 10-year broadcast agreement with CBS Sports reached in the fall of 2008, the game is played on the second Saturday in December to conclude college football's regular season.

ARMY WEST POINT FOOTBALL TAILGATE SHOW

The fast-paced Army West Point Football Tailgate Show originates from Black Knights Alley in front of Michie Stadium on game days, beginning two hours prior to kickoff. A video stream of the show is made available on Army West Point's official Web site (GoArmyWestPoint.com) via Knight Vision. The show features interviews with fans, special guests and visits from the Cadet Band, Rabble Rousers and other dignitaries in attendance. The Army West Point Football Tailgate Show is co-hosted by Tony Morino and Joe Beckerle.

ARMY WEST POINT SPORTS NETWORK

BOB ANDERSON

The Army West Point Sports Network broadcasts more than 200 live events each year, providing comprehensive audio and video coverage of Army West Point Athletics. The Army West Point Sports Network features a four-station cluster for football, headlined by flagship station WABC (770-AM, New York, N.Y.).

BICENTENNIALB // B // B // B

On March 16, 1802, President Thomas Jefferson signed into law a bill of the United States Congress authorizing the establishment of "a military academy to be located at West Point in the State of New York." During 2002, the Bicentennial of the founding of the Academy was observed at West Point and at other designated places throughout the world. In addition to a host of high-profile events, a commemorative silver dollar and postage stamp were issued to honor the Academy.

BLACK KNIGHTS ALLEY

The "fan-fest" area located on the east side of Michie Stadium on Mills Road between the East stands and Lusk Reservoir on game days is known as "Black Knights Alley." Black Knights Alley, which debuted in 2004, was completely revamped in 2008 and offers family entertainment for fans of all ages, particularly youngsters, as part of Army West Point's pregame festivities. Following the Cadet Review, fans are transported via bus to Black Knights Alley, which opens to the public approximately three hours prior to kickoff. Once there, fans can visit various photograph and autograph booths, enjoy inflatable activities, military hardware displays and a host of sponsor-related giveaways, listen to the sounds of the Benny Havens Band, and much more.

BLACK LION AWARD

One of the most prestigious and important awards Army West Point's coaching staff hands out every year is the Black Lion Award. It is presented in memory of former Army football great Don Holleder, who was killed in combat in Vietnam on Oct. 17, 1967, and the men of the 28th Infantry Regiment (nicknamed the "Black Lions"), who died with him that day.

BLAIK, EARL "RED"

BLACK KNIGHTS ALLEY

EARL "RED" BLAIK

Earl "Red" Blaik was credited with elevating Army's football program from the "pit to the pedestal" during the 1940s. In 18 years at the Black Knight helm, Blaik compiled a 121-33-10 record and remains the winningest grid coach in West Point history. Three of his teams captured national championships and seven were crowned Lambert Trophy titlists. He was inducted in the charter class of the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2004.

BLAIK FIELD AT MICHIE STADIUM

One of the nation's most venerable athletic facilities added a bit more nostalgia in 1999 when the playing surface at West Point's majestic Michie Stadium was officially designated "Blaik Field," in honor of legendary Army football coach and athletic director Earl "Red" Blaik. The official naming ceremonies took place during pregame festivities of Army's home game versus Ball State on Sept. 25, 1999.

BLANCHARD, FELIX "DOC"

"Mr. Inside," Felix "Doc" Blanchard, teamed with "Mr. Outside," Glenn Davis, to form one of the most heralded backfields in the history of college football. A three-time All-America selection, Blanchard captured the Heisman Trophy in 1945, one year before Davis copped the honor. He was inducted in the charter class of the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2004. The Army Athletic Association retired Blanchard's legendary uniform number 35 during a halftime ceremony on Oct. 10, 2009 when the Black Knights hosted Vanderbilt on "Felix 'Doc' Blanchard Day." Blanchard passed away on April 19, 2009, at the age of 84.

BOWLS

Army West Point sports a 4-2 record in six postseason bowl appearances. The Black Knights made their first postseason appearance in the 1984 Cherry Bowl, defeating Michigan State 10-6. Army's six postseason appearances have been decided by a total of 18 points. All six games have been decided by six points or less with the latest being the first overtime victory by the Black Knights.

CADET COLORS

There is great significance to the Cadet colors of black, gold and gray. The components of gunpowder are charcoal, saltpeter (potassium nitrate) and sulfur, which are black, gold and gray in color.

FELIX "DOC" BLANCHARD

CAGLE, CHRIS

Chris "Red" Cagle gained All-America honors three times during the 1920s, the first Army West Point player to achieve that feat during his career.

CALLAHAN, SEAN

In the summer of 2014 at Yankee Stadium, Army West Point Executive Athletic Director Bob Beretta officially welcomed Sean Callahan to the Army West Point team as part of the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation. He was presented with a football, jersey and hat from an assistant coach and posed for photos. Callahan then enjoyed lunch with the players. He underwent his second stem cell transplant in the spring of 2014 due to his brain tumor and was connected to Army West Point football through Friends of Jaclyn Foundation, whose mission is to improve the quality of life for children and their families who are battling pediatric brain tumors and to raise awareness.

CAMPBELL, CALEB

Caleb Campbell became the first Army football player selected in the National Football League draft since 1997 when he was chosen by the Detroit Lions with the 11th pick of the seventh round (the 218th overall selection) in the 2008 NFL Draft.

CAMPBELL TROPHY

In 2011, Andrew Rodriguez became the first Army player to win the William V. Campbell Trophy. The honor, widely recognized as the top academic honor in college football, is awarded annually to the nation's top football scholar-athlete. Rodriguez was the first service academy player to win the award since Air Force's Chris Howard in 1990. The award comes with a 25-pound bronze trophy and a total post-graduate scholarship of $25,000.

CBS SPORTS

For the 20th straight year, CBS Sports will televise the Army-Navy Classic to a national audience in December. This year's game will be played Dec. 9 at Lincoln Financial Field in Philadelphia, Pa. The network signed a 10-year broadcast extension in the Spring of 2017 and will televise the game nationally through the 2028 season.

CALEB CAMPBELL

CBS SPORTS NETWORK

CBS Sports Network and the Army Athletic Association reached an exclusive five-year agreement that guarantees live television coverage of every Army West Point home football game and select neutral-site games in which Army West Point is the home team, on CBS Sports Network, through the 2019 season. The deal was announced by David Berson, President, CBS Sports, and Boo Corrigan, Director of Athletics at West Point. The partnership provides that a majority of Army West Point home football games will be played on Saturday afternoons beginning at noon. Additionally, a live web stream of all Army West Point's home telecasts will be made available free of charge to military personnel around the world. CBS Sports Network began televising Army West Point home football games in 2009 and entered a five-year partnership in 2010.

CHERRY BOWL

Army defeated Michigan State 10-6 in the inaugural Cherry Bowl in 1984. The game was played in the Pontiac Silverdome.

CLASS THE STARS FELL UPON

West Point's Class of 1915 is affectionately known as the "Class the Stars Fell Upon." There were 164 graduates that year at West Point and an incredible 61 (or 37.2%) went on to attain the rank of general officer. Thirteen cadets in the Class of 1915 earned a varsity "A" in football and of those, nine went on to become general officers (69.2%). Some of the country's most influential leaders of the 20th century were included in the class, names like Dwight Eisenhower, Omar Bradley, James Van Fleet, Vernon Prichard, Leland Hobbs, Walter Hess, Thomas Larkin, Hubert Harmon and Roscoe Woodruff. All earned at least one varsity letter on West Point's gridiron.

CINCINNATI

Following 1,011 non-conference games, Army played its first league contest versus Cincinnati on Sept. 19, 1998. The Black Knights spent 108 years as a Division I-A Independent before joining the ranks of Conference USA.

CIVIL WAR

Best-selling author John Feinstein chronicled the 1995 campaigns of both Army and Navy, culminating with the season-ending battle between the two academies, in a novel titled "A Civil War." The book is widely regarded as the pre-eminent inside look at the storied service academy rivalry.

COLLEGE GAMEDAY

In recognition of the United States service academies, ESPN's popular College GameDay show originated live from West Point, N.Y., on Sept. 27, 2003, when Army West Point hosted Conference USA rival South Florida. With a patriotic theme and the storied grounds of the Military Academy providing a historic backdrop, the nation's premier Saturday morning college football preview show debuted at West Point, making only the third trip to one of the country's service academies. College GameDay has broadcast live from the Army-Navy Game the last couple of meetings.

COMMANDER IN CHIEF'S TROPHY

Named in honor of the President of the United States as commander in chief of the armed forces, the Commander in Chief's Trophy is awarded annually to the winner of the round-robin football competition between Army, Navy and Air Force. The three-sided structure weighs 170 pounds, stands 2 1/2 feet tall and is engraved with the seal of each academy.

CONFERENCE USA

After 108 years as a Division I-A Independent, Army became a member of Conference USA in 1998. In another change of direction, the Black Knights' football program returned to Division I-A Independent status seven years later (2005).

DAVIS, GLENN

"Mr. Outside," Glenn Davis, teamed with "Mr. Inside," Felix "Doc" Blanchard, to form one of the most heralded backfields in the history of college football. A three-time All-America selection, Davis captured the Heisman Trophy in 1946, one year after Blanchard copped the honor. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1961 and was a member of the charter class elected to the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2004. Davis' legendary uniform number 41 was officially retired by the Army Athletic Association in 2004. Davis passed away on March 9, 2005, at the age of 81.

DAWKINS, PETE

Pete Dawkins, who served as the First Captain of the U.S. Corps of Cadets, became the third West Pointer to win the Heisman Trophy when he earned the award in 1958. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1975 and was a member of the charter class elected to the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2004. Dawkins' legendary uniform number 24 was officially retired by the Army Athletic Association on Oct. 25, 2008, as West Point celebrated "Pete Dawkins Day."

DEFENDER OF THE NATION

Army linebacker Andrew King ('17) was honored with the inaugural Defender of the Nation Award in December of 2016. The award celebrates our nation's military academies and the many accomplishments of their cadet-athletes with exceptional leadership qualities on the field, in the classroom and in the community.

DRAMATIC ARMY-NAVY FINISHES

Eight of 10 Army-Navy football matchups during the decade of the 1990s were decided by 10 points or less, including an incredible five-game stretch that was decided by a total of 10 points. Army captured all five of those verdicts, with the outcome not resolved until the game's final moments in each case.

"DUTY, HONOR, COUNTRY"

Three attributes of paramount importance to a soldier are Duty, Honor, Country. Each is equally important. Together these words form the motto of the U.S. Military Academy.

DYNAMIC DUO

Quarterback Trent Steelman and running back Raymond Maples became just the second Army duo to each rush for 1,000 yards in a season during the 2012 campaign. Steelman rushed for an Army quarterback record 1,248 yards, while Maples became just the third Black Knight to crack the 1,000-yard mark twice with 1,215 yards. The pair's total of 2,463 broke the Academy record for rushing yards by two teammates.

EISENHOWER, GEN. DWIGHT D.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower lettered on the gridiron for Army in 1912 before graduating in 1915 as a member of the "Class the Stars Fell Upon." Following a distinguished military career, Eisenhower was elected President of the United States in 1952 and served two terms.

FACEBOOK

Continuing its effort to keep Army West Point fans up-to-date, the Army Athletic Association operates a page on Facebook. The page can be found by going to Facebook.com/goarmywestpoint with regular updates about Army West Point athletics.

FEDEX FIELD

The home of the Washington Redskins, FedEx Field in Landover, Md., was the site of the 2011 Army-Navy Game presented by USAA. The largest stadium in the NFL at 91,703 seats, FedEx Field was completed in 1997 at a cost of $250 million. The 2011 game marked the first Army-Navy clash hosted by our nation's capital. It was the 16th different venue to host the annual rivalry game.

FIELDTURF

The Army Athletic Association installed a new FieldTurf playing surface at Michie Stadium in the summer of 2015, replacing the FieldTurf surface it put down in 2008. The new turf allows for lines to be repainted for football and lacrosse.

FIRST CAPTAIN

The rank of First Captain is the highest position in the United States Corps of Cadets chain of command. Twenty-seven Army football players or managers have earned the title, including such notable names as Douglas MacArthur and Pete Dawkins. Brandon Whittington was the last Army player to serve as First Captain, performing those duties during the 2012-13 academic year.

FLAGS

When the Black Knights take the field before each game, two players are assigned to run out of the locker room carrying flags. One player leads the way with the American flag, while another totes the flag of the Army unit insignia the Black Knights are wearing on their uniform that game.

FOLEY ATHLETIC CENTER

The massive 77,000-square-foot Foley Athletic Center opened in 2007 and provides Army West Point's football team with a state-of-the-art indoor practice facility, a place where the Black Knights can train in a climate-controlled environment during the winter months and inclement weather days throughout the year.

CIC TROPHY

PETE DAWKINS

BRANDON WHITTINGTON (RIGHT) SERVED AS FIRST CAPTAIN IN 2012-13.

ARMY PLAYED ITS 2012 SPRING GAME AT FORT BENNING.

FORBES MAGAZINE

West Point earned the title of the "Top Public School" in Forbes magazine's 2016 rankings, while also placing 14th as one of "America's Best Colleges," compiled by Forbes and the Center for College Affordability and Productivity. In the report, the CCAP ranked 600 undergraduate institutions based on the quality of the education they provide, the experience of the students and how much they achieve.

FORT BENNING

On March 9, 2012, the Black Knights played their annual spring game at Fort Benning, Ga., home of the Infantry and Armor branches of the U.S. Army. The game, Army's first spring scrimmage ever played away from West Point, was played at Doughboy Stadium. In addition to the scrimmage, the Black Knights attended Fort Benning's basic training graduation ceremony before taking a tour of the National Infantry Museum. Named after the respective branches, the Armor squad topped the Infantry team, 20-14.

FORWARD PASS

Notre Dame quarterback Gus Dorais and end Knute Rockne used the forward pass to help the Fighting Irish upset a heavily favored Army team in 1913. The game helped popularize the forward pass and showed how it could be integrated with rushing into a complete offense.

FRIENDS OF JACLYN FOUNDATION

Friends of Jaclyn Foundation's mission is to improve the quality of life for children and their families who are battling pediatric brain tumors and to raise awareness. The foundation pairs up children and their families battling pediatric brain tumors with college and high school sports teams. The teams give these children love, support and friendship as they fight this devastating disease. They celebrate each day by creating lasting relationships between student athletes, the child, and their families. This greatly improves the quality of life for children with brain tumors, as well as those who support them. Army West Point football welcomed Sean Callahan to its roster in the summer of 2014 as part of Friends of Jaclyn and Yankees HOPE Week.

FUTURE SCHEDULES

The Army Athletic Association has released its schedule for the 2017 season on GoArmyWestPoint.com.

LEAMON HALL

G // G // G // G

"GAME OF HONOR"

During the 2011 season, CBS and Showtime produced the documentary, "Game of Honor." The production followed both the Army and Navy teams all season long as they prepared for their annual match-up in December. The documentary premiered on Showtime Dec. 21, 2011. The show was nominated for six Emmy Awards and took home three statues, including the one for "Outstanding Sports Documentary."

GROUND FORCES

Army ranked no lower than seventh nationally in rushing during the time it featured the wishbone offense from 1984 through 1999. During that span, the Black Knights copped four national rushing titles. After an eight-year hiatus from the top 10, Army returned to the option and finished the 2008 campaign as the nation's ninth-ranked rushing team. The Black Knights led the nation with 346.5 rushing yards per game in 2011 and were back on top of the national rankings in 2012 with an Academy record 369.8 yards per game. The Black Knights were third in the nation in 2013 in rushing.

HALL, DALE

The impossible task of replacing legendary Earl "Red" Blaik at the Army helm fell on the shoulders of Dale Hall. Hall served as the Black Knights' mentor from 1959 through 1961.

HALL, LEAMON

A strong-armed right-hander, Leamon Hall eclipsed virtually all of Army's passing records on game, season and career levels before graduating in 1978. He passed for 5,502 yards during his West Point career on 426 completions, 38 of which went for touchdowns.

HALL OF FAME

Twenty-seven players and coaches from the storied West Point gridiron program have been elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame, located in South Bend, Ind. Many others with West Point ties have also been enshrined. Arnold Tucker became Army's latest representative in the hall of fame when he was elected in 2008.

HEISMAN TROPHY

Since the inception of the Heisman Trophy in 1935, three Army players have garnered the award. Only four other schools — Notre Dame (7), Ohio State (7), Southern California (7) and Oklahoma (5) — have had more winners.

HOFFMAN PRESS BOX

Construction on the $7 million, 12,000-square foot, two-story press box for Michie Stadium was completed in the spring of 2003. Funding for the project was provided as part of the Association of Graduates' Bicentennial Campaign Plan. Mark B. Hoffman (USMA '69), lead donor for the undertaking, pledged $5 million toward construction of the state-of-the-art media facility, which officially opened when Army hosted Connecticut on Sept. 6, 2003.

HOLLEDER, DON

In a desperate move to find a quarterback in 1955, Army head coach Earl "Red" Blaik deftly slid All-America end Don Holleder to signal caller. Despite heavy criticism, Blaik stuck with Holleder through early season struggles. Holleder rewarded Blaik's courage with a 6-3 record and a 14-6 season-ending win over arch-rival Navy. Holleder would be killed in action during the Vietnam conflict. The building that houses both Army West Point's intercollegiate basketball and hockey arenas is named in his honor.

HUNDREDTH GAME

Arch rivals Army and Navy collided for the 100th time on Dec. 4, 1999, in Philadelphia, Pa. It marked the 12th NCAA Division I Football Bowl Subdivision series to reach the elite club.

INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Army capped a record-setting 1996 campaign with a December trip to the Poulan/Weed Eater Independence Bowl. After establishing a school record with 10 victories, the Black Knights' furious fourth-quarter rally fell just short, losing to heavily favored Auburn 32-29 when a potential game-tying 27-yard field goal sailed wide right in the final minute.

INDEPENDENT

For its first 108 years, Army's football program battled as an Independent, winning three national championships and forging one of the richest football traditions in the land. The Black Knights initiated a new chapter in their vast football lore in 1998 when they embarked upon their first campaign as members of Conference USA. Army's brief, seven-year foray into conference life ended in 2005 as the Black Knights returned to Independent status.

INSTANT REPLAY

In the fourth quarter of Army's 21-15 loss to Navy in 1963, CBS utilized the first television "instant replay" on a touchdown run by quarterback Rollie Stichweh. Hall of Fame broadcaster Lindsay Nelson made the call for CBS.

INTENT

Army West Point Athletics does not subscribe to the National Letter of Intent process used by other NCAA institutions. Due to the U.S. Military Academy appointment process, names of recruited cadet-athletes are not available until they arrive for Reception Day (R-Day) during the summer.

INTERVIEWS

Beyond his regular Tuesday press conference, head coach Jeff Monken is available for interviews by appointment only. Please direct all interview requests to Assistant Athletic Director Matt Faulkner at (845) 938-6871. Also, please make arrangements for all player interviews through the Army West Point's Office of Athletic Communications.

JARVIS, CHARLIE

In a 58-25 romp over Boston College on Nov. 9, 1968, Charlie Jarvis carried the ball 22 times for 253 yards and two touchdowns, setting an Army single game rushing mark that remained in place for more than three decades. He finished the year with 1,110 ground yards, an Academy record at the time. Jarvis' single-game standard remained in place until Michael Wallace piled up 269 rushing yards in Army's defeat of Louisville in 1999 in overtime.

JERSEY NUMBERS

Army West Point has four retired jersey numbers — Pete Dawkins' No. 24, Felix "Doc" Blanchard's No. 35, Glenn Davis' No. 41 and Joe Steffy's No. 61. Army West Point does not issue the No. 12 jersey either. That number represents the United States Corps of Cadets who is recognized as Army West Point's "12th Man."

CHARLIE JARVIS

JONES, CARLTON

Carlton Jones graduated from West Point in 2006 ranked second on Army's career rushing list with 3,356 ground yards. He closed his career 763 yards shy of Mike Mayweather's all-time Army record of 4,299 yards. Jones set a single season school record with 17 rushing touchdowns in 2004.

KICKING MULE

The familiar "Kicking Mule" was adopted as Army's official intercollegiate athletic logo during the mid-1970s. The logo was demoted to "retro" status when the Army Athletic Association unveiled a new family of marks during the summer of 2000.

KIMSEY ATHLETIC CENTER

Ranked as the highest priority project in the U.S. Military Academy's Bicentennial Campaign, Kimsey Athletic Center directly supports the Army West Point football program. Nestled among several of the U.S. Military Academy's showcase athletic facilities (Michie Stadium, Hollender Center and Foley Athletic Center) Kimsey Athletic Center is located behind the south end zone of Michie Stadium. Construction on the project spanned from January 2001 to the spring of 2003. The price tag ($40 million) was covered entirely by private contributions.

KIPER, MEL

ESPN football analyst and National Football League Draft guru Mel Kiper honored West Point's Michie Stadium as the nation's "Most Scenic" venue for college football in a posting on ESPN.com. Kiper also selected the Army-Navy game as owning the "Best Atmosphere" in college football. The lists were based on Kiper's opinion from over 25 years of covering, watching and traveling to college football games as a fan, observer and analyst.

LAUREN'S FIRST AND GOAL

Lauren's First and Goal is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization, a labor of love started in 2004 by current Army West Point assistant coach John Loose and his wife, Marianne, in honor of their daughter, Lauren, a 16-year-old pediatric brain tumor survivor. The Loose family started the foundation as a way to help other families who are battling childhood cancer. Since its inception, LFG has raised more than $1.5 million toward its mission to provide financial support for brain tumor research and cancer services, to offer financial and emotional support to families living with pediatric cancer, and to increase awareness of the disease. These goals are made possible through the funding gained through LFG Football Camp and charitable contributions.

LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD

The home of the Philadelphia Eagles, Lincoln Financial Field has served as the home of the Army-Navy Classic seven of the last 10 years. The $395 million, 70,000-seat state-of-the-art facility opened in August 2003. It stands as the fourth different Philadelphia stadium to host the event, and was the 15th different venue in the series.

LIVE STATS

After the launch of the new GoArmyWestPoint.com website in the summer of 2015, live stats underwent an update as well. The new website provider for Army West Point is Sidearm Sports. The revamped site has interactive live stats with headshots and statistical breakdowns. View all the up-to-the-minute stats by selecting live stats on the schedule page.

LOGO

Army West Point's Athletics introduced a new brand and identity system in the spring of 2015. The new logo features the Athena Shield with the helmet and sword. The star at the bottom of the shield represents the connection to the U.S. Army and its storied past. To read more about the rebrand, visit GoArmyWestPointRebrand.com.

LOMBARDI, VINCE

A host of future National Football League coaches cut their respective coaching teeth along the banks of the Hudson. In addition to the likes of Bill Parcells, John Mackovic and Frank Gansz, Vince Lombardi served a coaching stint at West Point. Lombardi was an assistant under Army head coach Earl "Red" Blaik from 1949 to 1953.

DOUGLAS MACARTHUR

MIKE MAYWEATHER

LONELY END

In 1958, Army head coach Earl "Red" Blaik introduced a formation that famed sportswriter Stanley Woodward described as "the lonely end." Bill Carpenter earned the illustrious assignment during spring practice. When the formation was first installed, Carpenter would break from the huddle and rush to his spot, split 15 yards wide of the offensive line. After six or seven plays he required a break. Blaik developed signals and Carpenter remained out of the huddle by himself. The new formation caught the imagination of football fans throughout the nation.

MACARTHUR, GEN. DOUGLAS

A 1902 West Point graduate who served as football team manager in 1903, Douglas MacArthur became General of the U.S. Army in 1944. During his tenure as West Point Superintendent, MacArthur initiated an intramural sports program that was to become a model for both Army posts and colleges all over the country. Included among his most famous quotes are the following:

"From the Far East, I send you one single thought, one sole idea, written in red on every beachhead from Australia to Tokyo. There is no substitute for victory!"

and

"Upon the fields of friendly strife,
Are sown the seeds
That, upon other fields, on other days,
Will bear the fruits of victory."

MARCH-ON

One of the time-honored traditions of the Army-Navy Classic is the March-On into the stadium conducted by the Corps of Cadets and Brigade of Midshipmen prior to team warm-ups.

MAPLES, RAYMOND

Raymond Maples, who graduated in 2014, was one of only three players in Army history to record back-to-back seasons with at least 1,000 rushing yards. Maples ran for 1,066 yards as a sophomore in 2011 and amassed 1,215 yards in 2012. Maples finished his career sixth on Army's all-time rushing list with 2,878 career rushing yards.

JOSH McNARY

MARSHALL, GEN. GEORGE C.

"I want an officer for a secret and dangerous mission. I want a West Point football player." Gen. George C. Marshall, chief of staff of the U.S. Army, uttered this most famous phrase during World War II.

MASCOT

Since 1899, mules have served as the mascots for the U.S. Corps of Cadets. The choice of the mule as a mascot reflects the long standing usefulness of the animal in military operation — transporting guns, supplies and ammunition. Strong, hearty and persevering, the mule is an appropriate symbol for the Corps of Cadets.

MAYWEATHER, MIKE

Army's career rushing leader with 4,299 yards, Mike Mayweather held the Academy's single-season mark as well with 1,338 ground yards from 1990 to 2008. The St. Louis, Mo., native finished 10th in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1990. Mayweather was inducted into the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2005.

McNARY, JOSH

One of the most productive defenders in Army history, Josh McNary finished his career as the Black Knights' all-time leader with 28 quarterback sacks and 49 tackles for loss. He is the only Army player ever to post two seasons with double-digit sacks, including an Academy record 12.5 in 2009. He finished his career in 2010 by returning a fumble 55 yards for a touchdown in the Black Knights' 16-14 victory over SMU in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl.

MEYER, CHARLES R. "MONK"

Charles R. "Monk" Meyer played an instrumental role in Army's success during the 1935 and 1936 seasons. Although small by most standards at 143 pounds, Meyer was an exceptional runner, solid kicker and impressive passer. He lettered two seasons and earned All-America honors in some quarters.

MICHIE, DENNIS MAHAN

Dennis Mahan Michie is credited with introducing the sport of football at the U.S. Military Academy. Michie Stadium is named in his honor. Michie was killed in action during the Spanish-American War. He was inducted into the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2005.

MICHIE STADIUM

MICHIE STADIUM

Several national publications have labeled Michie Stadium as the nation's finest setting for college football. While Sports Illustrated and Inside Sports magazines have selected Michie as the country's premier college football setting, The Sporting News has listed Michie Stadium as its top "must see" venue in the land, and more recently, ESPN's Mel Kiper selected Michie Stadium as the "Most Scenic" college football site in the country. Army West Point's legendary home stadium celebrated its 90th anniversary as home of the Black Knights in 2014.

MISCHAK, BOB

The most decorated professional player to come out of West Point, Mischak was drafted by the Cleveland Browns in 1954. After completing his military service in 1957, he was a starting offensive guard for the 1958 New York Giants in the NFL Championship Game versus the Baltimore Colts. He went on to play for the New York Titans, which later became the New York Jets, and the Oakland Raiders, where he also played tight end. He was selected to two Pro Bowls (1961, 1962) and was named first-team All-AFL by the Associated Press in 1960 and 1961. Following his playing career, he coached the offensive line at West Point from 1966-73. Mischak was a member of the Raiders' organization as a tight ends coach and Player Personnel Director from 1973-87. The Raiders won three Super Bowls and played in eight AFC Championship Games during that period. He will be inducted into the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2017.

MONKEN, JEFF

Jeff Monken was named the 37th head football coach in West Point history on Dec. 24, 2013. Prior to his appointment with the Black Knights, he spent four seasons at Georgia Southern, where he went 38-16 and qualified for the Football Championship Subdivision Playoffs three years. In 2013, he led the Eagles into a transition year into the Football Bowl Subdivision. Monken brings triple-option expertise after spending years under Paul Johnson at Navy and Georgia Tech. Monken opened his tenure at Michie with a 47-39 win over Buffalo. He was the first head coach to win his opening game since Bob Sutton in 1991. This past season, Monken's squad ended the streak and defeated Navy 21-17. He is only the second coach to defeat Navy and win a bowl game in the same season, the last being Jim Young in 1984.

MOONEY, COLLIN

Collin Mooney broke the Black Knights' single-season rushing record in 2008 by gaining 1,339 yards. Mooney, Army's main offensive weapon in its switch to the triple-option, set the record with a one-yard gain on the final play from scrimmage versus Navy. The Black Knights' bruising fullback rushed for at least 100 yards in five games and became just the third Army player to rush for more than 200 yards in a game twice in the same season.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

Army teams captured consecutive national championships in 1944, 1945 and 1946 under head coach Earl "Red" Blaik.

NATIONAL EXPOSURE

In the last 20 years, 112 Army games have been televised nationally, 24 via network television. The Black Knights have played before a national television audience 88 times the past nine seasons alone, thanks in large part to an agreement struck between CBS Sports Network and the Army Athletic Association in 2009. Army has experienced unprecedented national exposure the past 10 years.

NATIONAL RANKINGS

Army closed the 1996 season ranked 24th nationally, the last time the Black Knights have closed a year listed in the Top 25.

NICKNAMES

Army West Point's Athletics introduced a new brand and identity system in the spring of 2015, but the nicknames for the Academy's sports teams have remained the same. The primary name is the "Black Knights" and the "Cadets" name remains as a secondary moniker. Cadets was the preferred nickname for many years, but the Army Athletic Association ushered in a new millenium in 2001 with the change to Black Knights.

NIKE

Owning one of America's top collegiate programs, Army West Point is aligned with arguably the world's leading sports footwear and apparel company, sharing a partnership with Nike, Inc. Each of Army West Point's 28 intercollegiate athletic teams sport Nike footwear, uniforms, apparel and accessories.

NOTRE DAME

Next to Navy, Notre Dame stands as Army West Point's most-familiar opponent. The teams' 2010 meeting at Yankee Stadium marked the 50th battle between the storied grid programs. Series highlights have included Notre Dame's 1913 win that popularized use of the forward pass; the Irish's victory in 1924 that prompted Grantland Rice to write about the "Four Horsemen;" and the famous "Win One for the Gipper" speech delivered by Knute Rockne in Notre Dame's 1928 triumph. The two powers were accorded national championship trophies eight times in the 35-season span between 1913 and 1947. The height of the classic rivalry came during the mid-1940s when the Cadets and Irish captured successive national titles from 1943 through 1947. Two of the last three meetings (1995 and 1998) between Army and Notre Dame have been decided by a total of four points, with the heavily favored Irish surviving upset scares in both outings. The 2010 game marked the first college football game at the new Yankee Stadium. The five-year playing hiatus ended in 2016 season on Nov. 19, when the two teams played in San Antonio, Texas, in part of the Shamrock Series.

O // O // O // O

OLIPHANT, ELMER

Elmer Oliphant authored one of the finest athletic careers in the history of the U.S. Military Academy. A two-time All-America selection on the gridiron, Oliphant earned four varsity letters in baseball, three in football, three in basketball and one in track and field, while garnering monograms in boxing, hockey and swimming before graduating in 1918. He was inducted in the charter class of the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2004.

"ON BRAVE OLD ARMY TEAM"

The most famous of West Point's athletic songs, "On Brave Old Army Team," ranks as one of the nation's top fight songs.

ONLINE

The Army Athletic Association (AAA) remains on the cutting edge of technology with its presence on the World Wide Web. The AAA's official Web site can be reached at GoArmyWestPoint.com and contains comprehensive coverage of Army West Point's entire intercollegiate athletic program. The site is updated regularly following every Army West Point intercollegiate athletic competition.

OVERTIME

Army experienced the first overtime contest in school history on Oct. 7, 1999 when the Black Knights defeated Louisville 59-52 in double-overtime during a wild Thursday night encounter along the banks of the Hudson. Recognized by several national outlets as the most entertaining game of the 1999 college football season, the nationally televised contest also marked the first Thursday evening home affair in West Point history. The Black Knights have played seven overtime contests in the past seven years, winning five of those affairs. Army had its four-game overtime winning streak snapped in 2008 with a 27-24 loss at Buffalo. Army stands 6-2 all-time in overtime tilts.

OVERTIME ONLINE

The Army Athletic Association added a football postgame show to its multi-media cache in 2007 with the development of "Overtime Online." "Overtime Online" originates from Randall Hall Auditorium following Army West Point's home games and includes coverage of postgame press conferences featuring head coach Jeff Monken and selected Black Knight players. The show is broadcast on Army West Point's official Web site and the Michie Stadium video board via Knight Vision.

PARADE

One of the time-honored traditions of a West Point football Saturday, a full dress cadet parade, takes place on "The Plain" three hours prior to kickoff (weather permitting) of every home Army West Point contest.

PARCELLS, BILL

Highly successful as a head coach in the National Football League, Bill Parcells guided the New York Giants and New England Patriots to Super Bowl appearances. The former Executive Vice President of Football Operations for the Miami Dolphins served as an assistant under Army head coach Tom Cahill from 1967 to 1969, and ranks among a host of NFL coaches who spent early portions of their careers along the banks of the Hudson. The prestigious list includes Vince Lombardi, Bob Mischak, John Mackovic, Frank Gansz, Bob Sutton, Bill Sheridan, Perry Fewell and Mike Sullivan.

ARMY PRACTICE

GEORGE W. BUSH*PHILADELPHIA

With roots dating back to the 19th century, the storied Army-Navy football classic has been played somewhere in the city of Philadelphia 86 of the 116 times the two arch rivals have met. The Army-Navy game, presented by USAA, is scheduled to be held in the "City of Brotherly Love" at Lincoln Financial Field once again in 2017. Army and Navy announced during the spring of 2009 that Philadelphia will host five Army-Navy games during an eight-year span from 2010 through 2017.

"PLAIN, THE"

"The Plain" remains one of the most famous lawns in the nation. Scenically tucked between Washington Hall and Trophy Point, it has been the site of thousands of full dress cadet parades over the years.

PRACTICE

The Black Knights hold an afternoon practice schedule in the fall. Players arrive at Michie Stadium between 3:00-3:15 p.m. and are on the field by 3:30 p.m. In 2017, the Black Knights will practice Tuesday through Friday. The team will hold a workout on Sunday after games before taking the day off on Monday.

PRESIDENT

Three standing presidents have attended the Army-Navy game. Bill Clinton ended the commander in chief's 22-year absence when he watched the 1996 contest in which Army claimed the CIC Trophy. George W. Bush witnessed the Black Knights' 26-17 defeat of the Mids in December 2001, after the events of Sept. 11. President Bush made a return visit to the classic in 2004, addressing both teams in their respective locker rooms prior to the battle. Bush also attended the final Army-Navy game of his presidency in 2008. Former commander in chief Barack Obama attended his first Army-Navy game in 2011, while President-elect Donald Trump attended the 2017 game prior to inauguration.

PRESS CONFERENCE

Head coach Jeff Monken hosts a weekly press conference each Tuesday before a Saturday game. The media sessions are held in Randall Hall Auditorium, beginning promptly at 1 p.m. A live video stream of the press conference is available via the Army Athletic Association's official web site at GoArmyWestPoint.com via Knight Vision.

RING WEEKEND*PUSH-UPS

Members of the Corps of Cadets jump from the stands to complete push-ups following every Army West Point score. Their push-up total matches the Black Knights' point total at the time.

Q // Q // Q // QQUARTERBACK RECORDS

Army signal caller Trent Steelman finished his career as Army's all-time leader among quarterbacks with 3,320 rushing yards, 772 rushing attempts, 45 rushing touchdowns and 12 100-yard rushing games. Steelman's touchdown total is an Academy record regardless of position.

R // R // R // RRABBLE ROUSERS

Army West Point's cheerleaders, better known as "Rabble Rousers," are all members of the U.S. Corps of Cadets. They support a host of activities in addition to Black Knight athletic contests.

RANGER

Ranger III made his public debut as one of Army West Point's mule mascots on Dec. 8, 2011. Army West Point's two-mule mascot team now consists of Ranger III and Stryker. Long-time mascots Raider and Ranger II were officially retired from service with the debut of the two new mascots.

RESERVOIR

Michie Stadium is located next to scenic Lusk Reservoir. One of the many pieces about West Point's history plebes must memorize is the amount of water in the reservoir. When asked how many gallons of water are in the reservoir, plebes are expected to answer, "78 million gallons when the water is flowing over the spillway." The reservoir was constructed by Captain James L. Lusk (USMA 1878) in 1895.

RING WEEKEND

West Point was the first college to have class rings, so receiving their rings is a major milestone in each cadet's experience. Ring Weekend is held at the beginning of each academic year and includes the ceremony in which the first class cadets receive their rings and a formal banquet. After getting their rings, firsties must face the tradition of avoiding the plebes who are waiting to surprise them. The plebes, usually with dirty hands, make a point of admiring the rings. Part of the tradition includes the plebes reciting, "What a crass mass of brass and glass! What a bold mold of rolled gold! See how it sparkles and shines! It must have cost you a fortune! May I touch it please, Sir/Ma'am?"

ROCKET

One of the traditional cheers at all Army West Point athletic contests is the Rocket Yell. Accompanied by a set of arm and hand movements, the Rocket is one of the most popular traditions at West Point.

(Whistle) — BOOM!- Ahhh
U.S.M.A. Rah! Rah!
U.S.M.A. Rah! Rah!
Hoo-Rah! Hoo-Rah!
AR-MAY! Rah!
Team! Team! Team!

RODRIGUEZ, ANDREW

A team captain in 2011, Andrew Rodriguez put his name among the college football elite as a senior. Rodriguez joined Peyton Manning (Tennessee) and Tim Tebow (Florida) as the only players to win both the National Football Foundation's William V. Campbell Trophy as the nation's top football scholar-athlete and the Amateur Athletic Union's James E. Sullivan Award as the top amateur athlete in the nation. Rodriguez was the first Army player to capture the Campbell Trophy and the third Black Knight to win the Sullivan Award. Rodriguez led the Black Knights in tackles as a sophomore in 2009, but missed all of 2010 with a career-threatening back injury. After two surgical procedures, he returned to the field in 2011. An Academic All-American, Rodriguez graduated ranked No. 2 in the West Point Class of 2012.

RUSHING TITLES

Army has led the nation in rushing offense nine times in its history (1944, 1945, 1954, 1984, 1993, 1996, 1998, 2011, 2012). The Black Knights were atop the rushing list during two of the last five seasons, the first time Army has led the country in rushing in consecutive years since 1944-45. The Black Knights ended a 30-year drought in 1984 with the introduction of the wishbone, and captured three additional titles from 1993-98. The Black Knights returned to the option in 2008.

S // S // S // SSASSAMAN, NATE

Quarterback Nate Sassaman, a converted defensive back, served as Army's trigger man when the wish-bone offense debuted in 1984 under head coach Jim Young. Sassaman guided the Black Knights to a national rushing title that year and their first postseason berth. Sassaman ran for 1,002 yards during the 1984 campaign, becoming the first Army quarterback to reach the 1,000-yard plateau. He currently ranks third on the Army season list for rushing yards by a QB.

SKYDIVERS

The pomp and pageantry of a West Point football Saturday is unmatched. One of the highlights of every Army West Point home game takes place when the game ball is delivered by skydivers that jump into Michie Stadium, weather permitting.

"SOLDIERS FIRST"

New York Times sportswriter and bestselling author Joe Drape chronicled the 2011 season in his book, "Soldiers First: Duty, Honor, Country and Football at West Point." Drape used his unique behind-the-scenes access to team meetings, the locker room and the sideline to tell the story of the players and coaches. The book was released in August 2012.

STEELMAN, TRENT

A four-year starter at quarterback from 2009-12, Trent Steelman broke the Academy record for consecutive starts by a quarterback with 32 straight appearances with the first unit from 2009-11 before missing the Fordham game on Oct. 29, 2011. In 2009, he became the first Army plebe to start a season opener in the modern era, and was the first Black Knight quarterback to start four Army-Navy games. Steelman holds the Army career record for rushing touchdowns (45) and is the only Black Knight to ever pass for 2,000 yards and rush for 2,000 yards during their career.

STEFFY, JOE

Army's only Outland Trophy winner, Joe Steffy, dominated the trenches as a two-way lineman when Army ruled the college football landscape during the 1940s. Steffy capped his brilliant career by accepting the 1947 Outland Trophy, awarded to college football's most outstanding lineman. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1987 and was a member of the second class elected to the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2005. The Army Athletic Association retired Steffy's uniform number No. 61 during a halftime ceremony on Sept. 19, 2009. He passed away May 21, 2011.

STICHWEH, CARL ROLAND

Carl "Rollie" Stichweh was a three-time varsity letter-winner starring at quarterback, halfback, defensive back and kick and punt returner. While being ranked number one in his class for physical education, Stichweh was selected by Navy as the "best opposition back in the country." Stichweh also has a place in college football history after his touchdown run against Navy in 1963 became the first play ever broadcast via television instant replay. Following graduation, Stichweh served in the Airborne branch of the U.S. Army and was awarded the Bronze Medal and Air Medal. Stichweh was inducted into the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2012.

SULLIVAN AWARD

Three Army football players have won the Amateur Athletic Union's James E. Sullivan Award. The honor, presented to the nation's top amateur athlete, has been given annually since 1930. The criteria used for selection is based on character, leadership and sportsmanship. Felix "Doc" Blanchard (1945), Y. Arnold Tucker (1946) and Andrew Rodriguez (2011) have all claimed the trophy.

SUN BOWL

Army's heartbreaking 29-28 loss to a heavily favored, Derrick Thomas-led Alabama squad in the 1988 John Hancock Sun Bowl marked the Black Knights' third postseason appearance in five years. The hardfought setback in El Paso, Texas, marked Army's first defeat in three postseason bowl decisions.

T // T // T // TTAILGATING

One of the most scenic tailgate sites in the country lies along the banks of the Hudson. The time honored tailgate tradition at West Point begins at dawn of every home football game and runs well after darkness has set in. Army was ranked No. 10 in the country on Tailgater Monthly's list of top college tailgates for 2012. One of Army's regulars described the West Point experience as, "... the whole patriotic feel. You're going to go in and come out feeling good about us as a country. You know you're in a safe place where the kids can run around because we take care of each other."

TELEVISION

Army West Point has experienced unprecedented national exposure the past eight years, garnering a total of 81 national television appearances. All of Army's contests last season were broadcast nationally with two on network television. Army struck a new broadcast deal with CBS Sports Network in 2015 that guarantees live national television coverage for each of the Black Knights' home football games through 2019.

THREE

Michie Stadium garnered a third-place rating on the Sports Illustrated list of "Favorite Venues" published in its June 7, 1999 edition. The magazine's selection committee wrote the following about its favorite venues: "There's something about being there. And where exactly would you be if you weren't on your couch? Where would you go to register the click of the turnstile, the feel of wooden slats beneath you, the whiff of stale beer? Wrigley, Wembley, Williamsport. Odd little cathedrals with strange rituals and sacraments (Dodger Dogs!). You'd be someplace that was engineered for sensory overload, not skybox revenue, the smell of peanuts on a summer breeze mingling with the roar of V-8s. You'd be someplace varnished in layers of history, the satiny armrest reminding you that somebody else sat here and saw Babe Ruth hit his 60th. You might be in some abomination of architecture, but you'd be someplace. So here's where we'd be if we could just take in a game some afternoon. We'd be in one of these places, hunched in a time-polished bleacher, humoring the ghosts in the outfield, trying to remember where the hell we parked. Eating a Dodger Dog, probably. Years later, when pressed to explain the unique drama of that afternoon — just smells and sights and sounds, really — we'd say, You had to be there."

THROWBACK JERSEYS

As part of the Army-Navy game's centennial celebration, the teams wore "throwback" game jerseys for their 100th meeting on Dec. 4, 1999. The Black Knights donned replicas of the familiar uniform tops worn by the Army teams of the 1940s and 1950s. Navy, meanwhile, sported the uniform style of its teams from the 1960s. The Black Knights wore similar "throwback" jerseys for their game against Rice in 1995. Army honored its national championship teams from 1944, 1945 and 1946 that day as the Black Knights and Rice played to a 21-21 tie. Former Army head coach Bobby Ross introduced similar "retro" uniforms in 2004 that were worn through 2009 in an effort to harken back to the "Golden Era" of Army football.

ARNOLD TUCKER

THURSDAY NIGHT

Army hosted Louisville on Oct. 7, 1999 in the first Thursday night contest at West Point's Michie Stadium. The game, a classic 59-52 double-overtime victory for the Black Knights, was televised live nationally by Fox Sports Net.

"TOUCHDOWN TWINS"

Felix "Doc" Blanchard and Glenn Davis teamed to form one of the most prolific backfields in the history of college football. Dubbed the "Touchdown Twins," Blanchard and Davis combined to score 97 touchdowns and 585 points from 1943 through 1946. The latter mark still stands as an NCAA record.

TRADITION

One is hard-pressed to find a football program steeped in more tradition than Army's. In their 127th season of intercollegiate competition, the Black Knights sport an overall record of 671-513-51 (.564). Army teams have captured three national championships (1944, 1945 and 1946) and seven Lambert Trophy titles. Three Army players have copped the Heisman Trophy and 27 players and coaches have been elected to the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame.

TRIPLE-OPTION

The Black Knights operated out of the wishbone attack most recently from 1984 through 1999. During the 16 years it worked out of the 'bone, Army captured four national rushing titles and made the first four postseason bowl appearances in school history. Army will continue to utilize the option game under head coach Jeff Monken which led the program to another bowl victory. The Black Knights have ranked first nationally in rushing two of the last six seasons while employing the triple-option scheme.

TUCKER, ARNOLD

Another Army football legend took his rightful place among college football's all-time greats in the spring of 2008 when Arnold Tucker was elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame. Tucker received the Sullivan Award in 1946 as the nation's top amateur athlete. As part of the famed Army backfield that featured Tom McWilliams and Heisman Trophy winners Glenn Davis and Felix "Doc" Blanchard, Tucker earned first team All-America honors that same season. Tucker quarterbacked the Cadets to a 27-0-1 record and three national championships from 1944 to 1946. Army also won three Lambert Trophy titles as the top team in the East during his tenure. Tucker tallied 1,127 passing touchdowns and 10 touchdowns in his three seasons at West Point after playing at the University of Miami in 1943. Tucker was inducted into the Army Sports Hall of Fame in September 2008.

TWELFTH MAN

West Point's Corps of Cadets has long been recognized as Army West Point's 12th man on the field. The Corps remains one of the most spirited student bodies in the nation.

TWITTER

Continuing its effort to keep Army fans up-to-date, the Army Athletic Association launched a page on Twitter in the spring of 2009. The page is located at www.twitter.com/GoArmyWestPoint. The Army football twitter feed can be found at www.twitter.com/ArmyWP_Football.

ULLRICH, CARL

Former Army Director of Athletics Carl Ullrich is widely regarded as the person responsible for returning Army's storied football program back to the national forefront. In 1983, Ullrich turned the reins of the West Point gridiron program over to Jim Young, who would engineer one of the greatest turnarounds in the history of the sport. Ullrich became the first administrator elected to the Army Sports Hall of Fame in 2007, inducted as part of the fourth class enshrined in the hall.

USAA

Officials from the Army, Navy and USAA announced a 10-year agreement in July 2009 that allows USAA to serve as the presenting sponsor of the Army-Navy football game. As part of the agreement, the classic will be titled, "The Army-Navy Game, presented by USAA." USAA is a diversified financial services group of companies and is among the leading providers of financial planning, insurance, investments and banking products to members of the United States military and their families, including both cadets from West Point and midshipmen from Annapolis. The presenting sponsorship is a first for the fabled Army-Navy classic and reflects the first nationally televised sports sponsorship for USAA, which is based in San Antonio,

VETERANS STADIUM

Army-Navy games have been contested at 15 different sites over the years, but Philadelphia's Veterans Stadium hosted 17 service academy showdowns during a 22-year stretch spanning the last three decades. "The Vet," which first hosted the Army-Navy game in 1980, was kind to the Army grid program. The Black Knights boasted an impressive 11-5-1 record (.676) versus their arch rivals at Veterans Stadium. The 2001 Army-Navy game was the last to be played at "The Vet" with Army prevailing 26-17.

VIDEO BOARD

Michie Stadium received a significant upgrade for the 2008 season with the installation of a 20-foot-by-50-foot, high definition video board in the North end zone. The display is part of a 30-foot-by-50-foot scoreboard that graces the grounds of the Michie Stadium complex. The HD display is used to showcase replays and video features before, during and after games. In addition, Academy initiatives, displays of cadet spirit and donor recognition are integrated into the Michie Stadium Game Day routine by utilizing the scoreboard and video unit.

WASHINGTON HALL

Framing "The Plain," majestic Washington Hall remains one the more scenic landscapes dotting the grounds of the U.S. Military Academy. Washington Hall houses the cadet mess hall, as well as a myriad of classrooms and barracks.

WEB STREAMING

The Army Athletic Association features one of the most comprehensive multi-media packages in the country, highlighted by a live event streaming schedule that remains second to none. Army's intercollegiate athletic department provides live audio and/or video streams of more than 200 events annually.

WEST POINT

West Point, also known as the United States Military Academy, was the first United States military post built after the Declaration of Independence. In its inception, it was under the command of Benedict Arnold. Established in 1802 it is the oldest military academy in the United States. Students are referred to as cadets. Collectively, graduates are known as "The Long Gray Line" because of the color of cadet uniforms and the unbroken line of West Point graduates. West Point trains more U.S. Army officers than any other single institution, and a high proportion of distinguished American generals have been West Point graduates. Currently, over 900 graduates are commissioned as U.S. Army lieutenants every year, representing 25 percent of new lieutenants commissioned. The Military Academy is located at West Point, New York, on a scenic overlook of the Hudson River, about 50 miles north of New York City. Occupying over 16,000 acres, it is one of the largest school campuses in the world. By comparison, the United States Naval Academy covers 338 acres and the United States Air Force Academy spans 18,000 acres.

"WHEN SATURDAY MATTERED MOST"

Sports Illustrated writer and West Point graduate Mark Beech chronicled Army's last unbeaten season with his book "When Saturday Mattered Most." Beech utilized interviews and archival material to delve into the details of the 1958 team that went 8-0-1 in legendary head coach Earl "Red" Blaik's final season. Beech's father was a classmate of the firsties on that team, graduating in 1959.

WILLIAMS, BILL

The U.S. Military Academy and the U.S. Naval Academy athletic departments commissioned noted sports artist Bill Williams to paint a commemorative still life illustration, titled "Army-Navy Classic," celebrating the 100th meeting between Army and Navy. The piece sold out quickly and remains available only through secondary markets.

WISHBONE

The Army football program's fortunes turned upward after head coach Jim Young installed the wishbone offense in 1984. During the 16 years it operated out of the 'bone, Army captured four national rushing titles and made the first four postseason bowl appearances in school history.

WASHINGTON HALL

WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS

Former Army football players Trent Steelman and Larry Dixon were reunited in the summer of 2015 as they were among the 45 players chosen to represent Team USA in the fifth International Federation of American Football Tournament World, which was held from July 9-18 in Canton, Ohio. Steelman was listed a wide receiver, while Dixon remained in the backfield.

YANKEE STADIUM

Some of the most famous games ever played by Army football teams have taken place at New York's Yankee Stadium. The majestic "House That Ruth Built" served as the site for many of the storied battles between Army and Notre Dame during the series' early years. Following a 35-year hiatus, big-time college football returned to Yankee Stadium on Nov. 20, 2010, when Notre Dame and Army resumed their fabled rivalry at the "Big Ballyard in the South Bronx." Army returned last season for the first time since 2011 and defeated UConn, 35-21.

YOUNG, JIM

Elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1999, Jim Young is credited with resurrecting a moribund Army football program in the 1980s. He stands as the third-winningest coach in the program's history. Young also served head coaching terms at the University of Arizona and Purdue University.

ZAC DAHMAN

Zac Dahman virtually rewrote Army's passing records on game, season and career levels before graduating from West Point in 2006. A four-year starter, Dahman stands as Army's career leader in passing yardage (6904), pass attempts (1184), pass completions (632) and total offense (6498), among others. All four records were previously held by former standout signal caller Leamon Hall.

ZAXBY'S HEART OF DALLAS BOWL

The Army West Point football team defeated North Texas, 38-31, in the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl on December 27, 2016. The victory marked Army's first bowl win since 2010 and the first time the Black Knights reached eight wins since the 1996 season. The Cadets closed out the year with three straight victories including an iconic win a little more than two weeks prior in Baltimore over rival Navy. The win improved Army to 4-2 overall in Bowl Games and was the Black Knights' first bowl win since the 2010 Armed Forces Bowl. Ahmad Bradshaw was named the game's MVP with 129 yards rushing, including a score. He was the second quarterback since 1930 to run for 129 yards.

ZAC DAHMAN

The heritage associated with Army Football is richly intertwined within the fabric of college football's development since Rutgers and Princeton met in 1869 in the first competitive college game ever. Army's first team took the field in 1890 and Black Knight squads have been rewriting history since.

1890—Cadet Dennis Mahan Michie accepts a challenge from midshipmen at Navy for a football game. Michie, who organizes, coaches and prepares the Army team, directs his charges onto "The Plain" on Nov. 29 for that historic contest. The more experienced Mids secure a 24-0 victory, but intercollegiate football at West Point is born.

1891—Army opens its first full season of football with its first victory, a 10-6 verdict over Fordham. Later, in the season finale, the Cadets make their first road trip and secure a 32-16 win at Navy. Dr. Harry Williams guides Army to a 4-1-1 record that season.

1892—Under the direction of Dennis Michie once again, the Cadets post a 3-1-1 mark. Army registers three straight shutouts, blanking Stevens (42-0), Trinity (24-0) and Princeton Reserves (14-0). Navy snaps the streak with a 12-4 win.

1893—Flexing its newfound football prowess, Army meets Eastern power Yale for the first time. The Elis dispatch the Cadets 28-0. Navy sends Army to a losing record (4-5) with a 6-4 decision in the season finale.

1894—Cadet Thales "Tilly" Ames earns honorable mention All-America status at center, becoming the first Army player to be singled out for his football accomplishments.

1895—Harvard's Charlie Brewer runs for a touchdown in the final minute to give the Crimson a 4-0 victory in the series' first meeting. The Cadets finish with an Academy-record five wins, all by shutout.

1898—Charles Romeyn kicks a 35-yard field goal late in the game to help Army forge a 5-5 tie with Princeton. Romeyn becomes the first Army player to receive first team All-America honors when he is named to Craig Whitney's All-America team in Harper's magazine.

1899—Charlie Wesson returns a punt 100 yards (on a 110-yard field) for a touchdown against Syracuse. That record still stands today. And, on Dec. 2, Army and Navy meet at Franklin Field in Philadelphia, squaring off for the first time since 1893.

1900—Army's defense holds Penn State scoreless, but the Cadet offense fails to hit paydirt in a 0-0 tie. Six of Army's seven wins come via shutout.

1901—Charles Daly, on the heels of two All-America honors prior to his graduation from Harvard in the spring, receives an appointment to West Point and becomes an All-America quarterback along the banks of the Hudson as well. He scores all 11 points in Army's 11-5 win over Navy.

1902—Paul Bunker is cited as an All-America at halfback, one year after earning similar accolades as a tackle. He is the first gridder ever to earn successive Walter Camp All-America honors at different positions.

1903—Army team captain Edward Farnsworth plays in his fifth Army-Navy game. The Cadets spot the Mids a 5-0 lead before storming back with 40 unanswered points in a 40-5 win. Farnsworth remains the only Army player ever to appear in five Army-Navy

1905—President Theodore Roosevelt witnesses a brutal Army-Navy contest in which 11 players are injured during the 6-6 tie. He threatens to abolish the sport unless new rules are devised.

1906—Improved rules, including limited use of the forward pass, are implemented. Game time is shortened from 70 minutes with a 10-minute halftime to four 15-minute quarters with a 15-minute half. The neutral zone along the line of scrimmage is created and the field is cut from 110 yards to 100 yards.

1907—The Cadets finish 6-2-1, beginning an NCAA-record stretch of 32 straight seasons in which Army posts a winning record. That record has since been eclipsed.

1909—Army's season is cut short after five games. In a 9-0 loss to Harvard, Cadet Eugene Byrne suffers a broken neck and dies later in the weekend. Byrne is one of 30 players nationally who die while playing football this year. The flying wedge is outlawed and free substitution is allowed.

1911—Head coach Joseph Beacham's squad blanks its first five opponents and allows just 11 points in eight games. But the only loss is a 3-0 defeat versus Navy in the finale. On Nov. 18, Army defeats Colgate 12-6 for West Point's 100th football victory.

1913—Army and Notre Dame meet for the first time. The Irish unveil a wide-open passing attack, featuring QB Gus Dorais and receiver Knute Rockne, that stuns the college football world. Unheralded Notre Dame wins 35-13.

1914—Charles Daly, in his second season as head coach, directs Army to its first perfect record as the Cadets breeze to a 9-0 mark. The Black Knights allow just three teams to score points and cap the campaign with a 20-0 win over Navy.

1916—Elmer Oliphant earns the first of two All-America halfback honors and helps the Cadets to their second 9-0 season in three years.

1918—Army wins its only game of the year, 20-0 over Mitchel Field, as World War I causes cancellation of the remainder of the schedule.

1919—Cadet senior Earl Blaik is among a host of disappointed Army players after a 6-0 loss to Navy at the end of a 6-3 season. Blaik will return in 1941 to begin a long and glorious career as Army's head coach.

1920—The Cadets beat Lebanon Valley 53-0 one week before drubbing Bowdoin 90-0 and setting an Academy record for points in a game that still stands today.

1921—Army travels to New Haven to play Yale, marking the first opponent other than Navy that the Cadets play on the road. Yale wins 14-7.

1922—The Cadets snap a three-year scoreless streak against Navy with a 17-14 win. Charles Daly retires at the conclusion of the season with a career record of 58-13-3 (.804). He coached Army during two different four-year stints. Army and Notre Dame tie 0-0 in the last meeting between these two teams on "The Plain."

1924—Michie Stadium is dedicated on Nov. 15 before Army and Columbia play to a 14-14 deadlock. Earlier in the year, following a 13-7 Notre Dame win over Army, famed sportswriter Grantland Rice dubs the Irish backfield "The Four Horsemen."

1926—Plebe halfback Christian "Red" Cagle scores on a 43-yard fourth-quarter touchdown run to help Army forge a 21-21 tie with Navy in front of 110,000 spectators at Chicago's Soldier Field.

1927—Christian "Red" Cagle scores on a 53-yard scoring run and catches a touchdown pass as the Cadets down Notre Dame 18-0 in New York City. The loss will be the only one for the Irish this season. Earlier in the year, Army beats Davis & Elkins 27-6 for the Academy's 200th football win.

1928—Eight years after former Notre Dame back George Gipp dies, Irish head coach Knute Rockne delivers his legendary "Win One for the Gipper" speech at halftime of the Army-Notre Dame game at Yankee Stadium. The Irish, who trail 6-0 at intermission to the heavily-favored Cadets, rally for 12 second-half points to win 12-6.

1929—Christian "Red" Cagle is named a first team All-American for the third straight year, becoming the first Cadet to do so.

1930—Army's era of "defensive football" begins as the Cadets blank their first four opponents. Army, en route to a 9-1-1 record, will shut out seven opponents this season and 19 in the next three years under head coach Ralph Sasse.

1931—A difficult year for Ralph Sasse, who mourns the March death of close friend Knute Rockne in a plane crash and then must overcome the death of cadet Richard Sheridan following a neck injury in the Yale game. His desire for the game sapped, Sasse requests a transfer from West Point. He remains through 1932 at the request of Army officials.

1932—Army goes 8-2, losing to Pittsburgh and Notre Dame. All eight wins are by shutout.

1933—One of the truly great Army teams wins its first nine games, allowing only two scores in that span. With nearly 10 minutes to play in the final game, Notre Dame rallies from a 12-point deficit to edge the Cadets 13-12.

1936—Charles "Monk" Meyer completes 11 of 15 passes for 172 yards as he outduels Columbia quarterback Sid Luckman. The Cadets win 27-16. Army later loses 7-0 to Navy in the first Army-Navy game played in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium.

1938—Bill Wood replaces highly successful Gar Davidson as Army's head coach and guides his charges to an 8-2 finish. It is the last in a 32-year run of winning seasons for the Cadets.

1941—Earl "Red" Blaik replaces Bill Wood as Army's head coach following a 1-7-1 performance in 1940. The Cadets win their first four games and tie Notre Dame (0-0) in the fifth contest.

1942—On Oct. 24, Army thrashes Coe College 34-0 to register West Point's 300th football victory.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

1944—Army wins all nine of its games, surrenders just five touchdowns all season and earns West Point's first football national championship. The Cadets average 56.0 points per game and outscore opponents 504-35, including a 48-0 thrashing of Notre Dame that ends a 13-year winless streak against the Irish.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

1945—Felix "Doc" Blanchard, nicknamed "Mr. Inside" by New York Sun writer George Trevor, becomes the first Army player to win the Heisman Trophy and helps lead the Cadets to their second straight unbeaten season and national championship.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

1946—After finishing second in the Heisman balloting the previous season, Army's "Mr. Outside," Glenn Davis, wins the Heisman Trophy. Earl "Red" Blaik is tabbed "Coach of the Year" by the Football Coaches' Association of America. A scoreless tie with top-ranked Notre Dame—the teams enter play ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in the country—snaps Army's 25-game winning streak.

1947—Columbia halfback Lou Kusserow scores his second touchdown of the day on a 2-yard run midway through the fourth quarter, propelling the Lions to a 21-20 upset of Army. That loss snaps the Cadets' 32-game unbeaten string that spans four seasons. Army guard Joe Steffy wins the Outland Trophy.

1948—The Cadets, ranked third in the nation and favored by three touchdowns, stop a late Navy drive to preserve a 21-21 tie. The Mids have lost 13 straight games entering this season's service-academy clash, but still manage to put the lone blemish on Army's 8-0-1 season.

1949—Quarterback Arnold Galiffa is named to five different postseason All-America teams after guiding the Cadets to a 9-0 mark and Army's fifth Lambert Trophy in the decade of the 1940s.

1950—The Cadets open the year with eight straight wins, including five shutouts, before Navy upsets Army 14-2 in the finale. The loss snaps a 17-game win streak and ends a 28-game unbeaten string. It is only the third Army loss in 64 games.

1951—Thirty-seven football players are among 90 cadets dismissed from the Academy following a cheating scandal. Earl "Red" Blaik considers resigning but remains at the behest of Gen. Douglas MacArthur. The Cadets finish 2-7.

1953—Earl "Red" Blaik is named "Coach of the Year" by the Touchdown Club of Washington, D.C., after directing the Cadets to a 7-1-1 mark.

1954—Navy, bound for the Sugar Bowl, rallies from a 20-14 deficit to beat the Cadets 27-20, snapping a seven-game Army win streak. End Don Holleder, halfback Tommy Bell and guard Ralph Chesnauskas earn first team All-America honors. Bell becomes the first Army rusher to surpass 1,000 yards, gaining 1,020.

1955—Prior to the season, in a desperate move to find a quarterback, Earl "Red" Blaik deftly slides Don Holleder from end to signal caller. Heavy criticism is heaped upon Blaik following a 26-2 loss to Michigan, Army's first defeat in six contests against the lowly Wolverines. Undaunted, Blaik sticks with Holleder and the senior guides the Cadets to a 6-3 record and a 14-6 win over Navy.

1957—On Oct. 19, Army defeats Pittsburgh 29-13. It is West Point's 400th football victory. Bob Anderson, joined by Pete Dawkins in the backfield, rushes for 983 yards and earns first team All-America accolades.

1958—Pete Dawkins takes his turn in the spotlight, winning the Heisman Trophy while leading the Cadets to an 8-0-1 mark. Earl "Red" Blaik installs the "Lonely End" formation with Bill Carpenter remaining split wide of the line and rarely joining the huddle. Blaik retires following the season. His career coaching mark stands at 166-48-14 (.759), including a record of 121-33-10 (.768) at West Point.

1959—Dale Hall replaces Earl "Red" Blaik at the Army helm. Hall, a former reserve Army halfback playing in the shadows of Felix "Doc" Blanchard and Glenn Davis, has been an assistant on Blaik's staff since 1956. Army finishes 4-4-1 in the first season of the post-Blaik era while Bill Carpenter earns first team All-America honors. Army and Air Force meet for the first time and play to a 13-13 tie.

1962—Following three straight losses to Navy, and a 16-11-2 record in three seasons, Army officials replace Dale Hall with Paul Dietzel, another Earl "Red" Blaik disciple, who leaves his head coaching job at Louisiana State. Dietzel's first Cadet squad posts a 6-4 mark.

1963—Army's potential game-winning drive stalls at the Navy 2-yard line as time expires in a 21-15 loss. The annual service-academy classic is postponed one week due to the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. In the fourth quarter, CBS-TV uses live television's first "instant replay" on a touchdown run by quarterback Rollie Stichweh. Legendary broadcaster Lindsay Nelson makes the call for CBS.

1964—Despite their first losing record since 1951, the 4-6 Cadets snap a five-game losing streak to Navy by taking the season finale 11-8. Tailback John Seymour rushes for 101 yards and Rollie Stichweh accounts for 117 yards of total offense.

1966—Tom Cahill, Army's plebe coach, is elevated to head coach after Paul Dietzel resigns prior to spring practice. Cahill's squad goes 8-2, earning him national "Coach of the Year" plaudits. Team captain and linebacker Townsend Clarke becomes the first Cadet in seven years to earn first team All-America honors.

1968—In a 58-25 romp over Boston College on Nov. 9, Charlie Jarvis carries the ball 22 times for 253 yards and two touchdowns, setting an Army single game rushing mark that would remain in place until the 1999 campaign. His 1,110 rushing yards for the season also sets an Academy record. Linebacker Ken Johnson is a first team All-America selection as Army completes a three-year stretch in which the Cadets are 23-7.

1958 – THE BLACK KNIGHTS GO 8-0-1 IN RED BLAIK'S FINAL SEASON. PETE DAWKINS WINS THE HEISMAN TROPHY.

1984 – HEAD COACH JIM YOUNG INSTALLS THE WISHBONE OFFENSE AND THE BLACK KNIGHTS WIN THE 1984 CHERRY BOWL.

1969—Team captain Lynn Moore closes out his career with 206 yards rushing in Army's 27-0 win over Navy. His totals for yardage and attempts (40) still stand today as single game rushing records for the Black Knights in the Army-Navy series.

1970—Army suffers through its worst season to date, going 1-9-1. The Cadets endure a brutal stretch of four road contests against the likes of Nebraska, Tennessee, Notre Dame and Virginia, then return home for games versus Penn State, Boston College and Syracuse.

1971—In his first season of varsity play, placekicker Jim Barclay nails a 40-yard field goal with 4:06 remaining to give Army a 16-13 win over Georgia Tech. Mercer Ferguson's interception in the end zone with three seconds remaining preserves the victory. Barclay kicks another late field goal to defeat Pittsburgh, while Army closes the season with a thrilling 24-23 win over Navy.

1972—Nebraska embarrasses Army 77-7 to open the season, but the Cadets, despite being 30-point underdogs, rally the next week to stun Texas A&M 24-14 in College Station. Army beats Air Force and Navy to win the inaugural Commander in Chief's Trophy.

1973—The Cadets go winless in 10 games and lose 51-0 to Navy. Tom Cahill is fired as head coach, causing an avalanche of negative publicity aimed at the Academy. In the season-opening 37-18 loss to Tennessee, quarterback Kingsley Fink throws for 326 yards, setting a school record.

1974—Homer Smith, appointed head coach in January, completes his first season along Army's sideline. In one of Army's three wins, Mike Marquez boots a 33-yard field goal with :17 remaining to give the Cadets a 17-16 victory over Air Force. Marquez, in uniform for his first varsity game, is called into action when starting kicker Mike Castelli is injured on the extra point after Army's first score.

1976—Homer Smith, who brought the Wishbone-T offense with him from UCLA, abandons the attack to better utilize the passing skills of junior quarterback Leamon Hall. Hall finishes the season with 2,174 passing yards, which stood as the Army single-season record for 27 years.

1977—Behind 1,944 passing yards from Leamon Hall, the Cadets win seven of 11 games and claim their second Commander in Chief's Trophy. In the season opener versus Massachusetts, Hall connects for five touchdown passes, including three to freshman Mike Fahnestock. That victory over UMass is the 500th in Army football history.

1979—Army, after opting not to renew Homer Smith's contract, hires University of Miami coach Lou Saban. Saban, who twice coached the National Football League's Buffalo Bills, leads the Cadets to victories over Connecticut and Stanford in the season's first two games, but Army will not win again, finishing 2-8-1.

1980—Lou Saban resigns his post abruptly in July. Top assistant, Ed Cavanaugh is hired. Mike Fahnestock, a senior, establishes an Academy record with 937 receiving yards.

1983—Army hires former Purdue and Arizona head coach Jim Young to replace Ed Cavanaugh. Navy dominates the Cadets en route to a 42-13 victory at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif., in the first Army-Navy game since 1944 played outside the city of Philadelphia.

1984—Jim Young, known for his ability to adapt to his personnel, installs the Wishbone-T attack and Army leads the nation in rushing while posting an 8-3-1 mark. The Cadets defeat both Navy and Air Force for the Academy's third outright Commander in Chief's Trophy before dropping Michigan State 10-6 in the Cherry Bowl, Army's first postseason appearance. The Cadets tie an NCAA mark during the season when Doug Black, Nate Sassaman, Clarence Jones and Jarvis Hollingsworth each rush for more than 100 yards versus Montana in the Mirage Bowl played in Tokyo, Japan.

1985—After eight regular-season victories, Army is awarded its second consecutive postseason bowl bid, earning a trip to the Peach Bowl. When free safety Peel Chronister bats down Illinois quarterback Jack Trudeau's two-point conversion pass with :34 left, Army secures a 31-29 victory. The wishbone accounts for 291 yards rushing in Army's ninth win of the year, its most since 1949. Offensive guard Don Smith is named a first team All-American, becoming the first Cadet to earn that honor since Ken Johnson in 1968.

1986—The Cadets garner a fourth Commander in Chief's Trophy, beating Air Force 21-11 and Navy 27-7. In Army's 56-48 shootout win over Lafayette, quarterback Tory Crawford rushes for 208 yards and accounts for 331 yards in total offense, the second-highest total in Academy history.

1988—Army wins another Commander in Chief's Trophy and earns a trip to the John Hancock Sun Bowl to face Southeastern Conference power Alabama. The Crimson Tide overcomes a 28-20 fourth-quarter deficit to foil Army's upset bid, halting efforts for an Academy-record 10th win of the season. The Cadets' wishbone offense grinds out 350 yards against an Alabama defense that entered the game ranked fifth in the nation in rushing defense.

1989—Frank Schenk connects on a 32-yard field goal with :11 remaining, propelling Navy to a 19-17 win over Army in the first service academy clash held at Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, N.J. Junior halfback Mike Mayweather sets a single season school record by rushing for 1,177 yards.

1990—Mike Mayweather, who will finish 10th in the Heisman balloting, establishes a new West Point single season rushing standard by accumulating 1,338 yards. He finishes his career as Army's all-time leading rusher with 4,299 yards. After his sixth winning season in eight years at West Point, Jim Young retires, departing as Army's third all-time winningest head coach with 51 victories.

1991—Bob Sutton, a longtime Jim Young assistant and Army's defensive coordinator, is tabbed West Point's 31st head football coach. Sutton's charges start out 3-3 but suffer four defeats in the final five games, including a 24-3 loss to Navy.

1992—Senior Patmon Malcom kicks a 43-yard field goal with :05 left to lift Army over Lafayette 38-36 in the season's third game. At Veterans Stadium in the season finale, Malcom boots a career-long 49-yard field goal with 12 seconds to play as the Cadets overcome a 17-point second-half deficit to stun Navy 25-24, capping the largest comeback in Army-Navy history (a mark that would remain only until 1996).

1993—Army's wishbone, consistently ranked among the nation's top rushing offenses, leads the country by averaging 298.5 ground yards per game. Sophomore fullback Akili King runs for 235 yards in the opener versus Colgate, the second-best day in Academy annals. The Cadets escape with another win over Navy and take a 44-43-7 lead in the series when Navy's plebe kicker Ryan Buccianeri misses an 18-yard field goal with six seconds left.

1994—For the third year in a row, an Army-Navy game is decided by a kicker. Army senior Kurt Heiss nails a career-long 52-yarder with 6:19 to play. The kick is also the longest ever in an Army-Navy game as Army wins 22-20. In a 25-24 win over The Citadel, quarterback Ronnie McAda throws for 257 yards, the 11th-best day in Army history and largest passing output in the "Wishbone Era."

1995—The Cadets cap a grueling 5-5-1 campaign by driving 99 yards in the final minutes for a game-winning touchdown in their 14-13 victory over Navy. The win is Army's fourth in a row versus the Mids. Four of Army's five losses come to bowl-bound teams, including a heartbreaking 28-27 loss to Notre Dame when Irish defensive back Ivory Covington stops Cadet tight end Ron Leshinski inches short of the goal line on the potential game-winning two-point conversion.

1996—Army reels off nine straight victories to open the season and appears in the national rankings during the regular season for the first time since 1988. Capping that nine-game burst was a 23-7 win over Air Force, Army's first triumph against the Falcons since 1988. The Cadets overcome an 18-point deficit to defeat arch-rival Navy 28-24, capping the largest comeback in Army-Navy history and giving the Cadets their fifth straight victory over the Mids. The win also secures the Academy's first outright Commander in Chief's Trophy title since 1988 and propels the Cadets to a record 10th win. Bob Sutton, who would later earn the "Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year Award," guides the Cadets to their fourth postseason bowl appearance as Army faces SEC power Auburn in the Poulan/Weed Eater Independence Bowl. By virtue of its vaunted wishbone attack amassing 346.5 yards per game, Army cops its third national rushing title of the "Wishbone Era." The Cadets, who see their furious fourth-quarter rally fall just short in a 32-29 loss to the Tigers, finish the season ranked 24th in the USA Today/CNN Coaches poll and 25th by the Associated Press. In March of 1997, Superintendent Lt. Gen. Daniel W. Christman announces the Cadets will join Conference USA beginning in 1998.

1998—Seventeen months of anticipation comes to an end as the Cadets explode onto the Conference USA scene by defeating Cincinnati 37-20 at Michie Stadium in the first conference battle by an Army team in 109 seasons of intercollegiate football action. The Cadets, evoking memories of the 1995 squad, play a host of tight contests but come up short in most instances. Army battles nationally ranked Notre Dame for 60 minutes before a late field goal gives the Irish a 20-17 home win. Army closes the campaign with a 34-30 come-from-behind win over Navy after trailing 30-19 entering the fourth quarter. Sophomore quarterback Joe Gerena comes off the bench to spark Army, while the Cadets rip the Mids' defense for three long scoring runs (69 yards by Gerena, 70 yards by Ty Amey and 71 yards by Craig Stucker). Army leads the nation in rushing for the third time in six years and fourth time since instituting the wishbone.

1999—Army's second season in Conference USA features the Black Knights' first Thursday night home game as Army and Louisville battle at Michie Stadium. Behind a record-setting 269 rushing yards from fullback Michael Wallace, Army prevails 59-52 in double overtime. The game, which sees the Cadets build a 45-17 halftime lead before the Cardinals storm back to forge a 45-45 tie at the end of regulation, marks Army's first overtime contest. Quarterback Joe Gerena forces a second overtime when he finds halfback Brandon Rooney for a 9-yard TD toss on 4th-and-6. He scores the game-winning touchdown on a 7-yard run before the Cadet defense halts Louisville on its final possession. Earlier in the year, Army defeats Ball State on the day the Academy dedicates the Michie Stadium playing surface in honor of legendary mentor Earl "Red" Blaik. At season's end, Navy turns back the Cadets 19-9 in the 100th meeting of the storied Army-Navy rivalry. In the weeks following Army's season, West Point officials replace head coach Bob Sutton with Todd Berry, who had taken Illinois State to the Division I-AA playoffs in 1998 and 1999. The Redbirds reach the national semifinals in 1999.

2000—The Black Knights establish or tie 12 individual and team records on game, season and career levels during the first year of new head coach Todd Berry's wide-open one-back multiple set. Senior running back Michael Wallace leads the way by posting the Academy's 10th 1,000-yard rushing season (1,157). He also rips through Air Force for 201 rushing yards to become the first Army player ever to post two 200-yard rushing days in his career. Omari Thompson becomes the first Black Knight to return two punts for scores in one season since Glenn Davis in 1944.

1996 – THE BLACK KNIGHTS WIN AN ACADEMY RECORD 10 GAMES EN ROUTE TO THE CIC TROPHY AND A BERTH IN THE INDEPENDENCE BOWL.

2001—Head coach Todd Berry's diverse offensive attack sets single season Academy records for pass completions (196) and passing yards (2218). In all, the Black Knights set or tie eight records on game, season and career levels. Army concludes the year with a 26-17 win over Navy at Philadelphia's Veterans Stadium.

2004—Army participates in its final season as a member of Conference USA under the direction of legendary head coach Bobby Ross. Ross was named the 34th head coach in West Point's illustrious football history the previous December in an effort to help return the program to the state of its storied past.

2005—After opening the year with six successive losses, Army rebounds with four straight wins. The win streak opens with Army's first road shutout (20-0 over Akron) in 37 seasons and also features a 27-24 road win over Air Force, the Black Knights' first victory at Falcon Stadium since 1977. Running back Carlton Jones eclipses the 1,000-yard rushing plateau for the second consecutive season.

2007—Assistant coach Stan Brock, a 16-year veteran of the National Football League, is named Army's 35th head coach after Bobby Ross announces his retirement in January. Wide receiver Jeremy Trimble becomes Army's career leader in receptions, receiving yards and touchdown receptions. In a thrilling 20-17 overtime win against Tulane, quarterback Kevin Dunn and receiver Mike Wright combine on a 36-yard "Hail Mary" on the final play of regulation to cap a 10-point, fourth-quarter comeback.

2008—Following the 2007 season, standout defensive back Caleb Campbell is selected in the seventh round of the National Football League Draft by the Detroit Lions, becoming the first Army player to be chosen by an NFL franchise since Ronnie McAda in 1997. Later in the year, senior fullback Collin Mooney rushes for 1,339 yards to break the Academy single season rushing record previously set by Mike Mayweather in 1990. Mooney posts five 100-yard rushing games and becomes only the third Black Knight to register two games of more than 200 rushing yards in a season. Following the season, Mooney is chosen to play in the East-West Shrine Game. Three weeks after the annual Army-Navy Classic, Rich

Ellerson is named the 36th head football coach in West Point history.

2009—Rich Ellerson guides the Black Knights to a 5-7 record in his first season, the program's best showing since 1996. The five victories are the most by a first-year Army mentor since Tom Cahill in 1966. The Black Knights score a 27-14 win at Eastern Michigan for their first win in a season opener since 1996. Trent Steelman becomes the first freshman to start every game at the quarterback position. Steelman leads the team with 706 rushing yards and five touchdowns. Wide receiver Alejandro Villanueva, who stands 6-10 and was a starting offensive tackle in 2008, is the Black Knights' leading pass-catcher with 34 catches for 522 yards. He registered all five of Army's touchdown catches.

2010—Winning football returns to West Point when the Black Knights post a 7-6 record. Army secures its first winning season since 1996 with a 16-14 victory over SMU in the Bell Helicopter Armed Forces Bowl in Dallas, Texas. Linebacker Stephen Anderson is named Army's Most Outstanding Player in the game, racking up 14 tackles and an interception as the Black Knights' score their first postseason victory since the 1985 Peach Bowl. Fullback Jared Hassin leads Army's triple-option attack that ranks 8th in the nation in rushing yards per game with 1,013 yards. He becomes just the second Army sophomore (Mike Mayweather) to crack the 1,000-yard barrier. Quarterback Trent Steelman accounted for 18 touchdowns, including a team-best 11 rushing scores. For the second consecutive season, Steelman starts every game under center and was just five passing yards shy of becoming the first Army quarterback to throw for at least 1,000 yards and rush for at least 500 yards in the same season. Defensive end Josh McNary completes his career as Army's all-time leader in quarterback sacks (28) and tackles for loss (49).

2010 – ARMY SCORES ITS FIRST WINNING SEASON SINCE 1996 AND DEFEATS SMU IN THE BELL HELICOPTER ARMED FORCES BOWL.

2011—Army posts a 3-9 record, playing 19 freshmen, more than any other team in the nation. The Black Knights defeat Northwestern to extend their streak of season with a win over a BCS automatic qualifying conference opponent to three. Running back Raymond Maples rushes for 1,066 yards, which ranks ninth on the Army single-season list, as Army leads the nation with 346.5 rushing yards per game. Quarterback Trent Steelman has his Academy record streak of 32 straight starts stopped after suffering an injury against Vanderbilt. Despite missing all or parts of five games, Steelman is Army's second-leading rusher with 645 yard and leads the team with 12 rushing touchdowns. He completes the season as the only Army player to ever rush for 2,000 yards and pass for 2,000 yards during their career. Four different Black Knights rush for at least 500 yards during the season. Linebacker Andrew Rodriguez and defensive end Zach Watts are named first-team Academic All-Americans, marking the first time since 1957 the Black Knights had at least two players earn first-team honors. Rodriguez becomes the first Army Black Knight to win the National Football Foundation's William V. Campbell Trophy as the nation's top scholar-athlete.

2012—Army receives a waiver from the NCAA that allows the Black Knights to hold their annual spring scrimmage away from West Point. The team travels to Fort Benning, Ga., and plays in front of a sold-out Doughboy Stadium. The team is split into two teams, Infantry and Armor, and the Armor squad comes away with a 20-14 victory. On March 20, Andrew Rodriguez is honored with the Amateur Athletic Union's James E. Sullivan Award as the nation's top amateur athlete. Rodriguez is only the third college football player to win both the Campbell Trophy as the nation's top football scholar-athlete, and the Sullivan Award (Peyton Manning, Tennessee; Tim Tebow, Florida). The Black Knights come from behind to defeat Boston College, 34-31, marking the fourth straight season they defeated a team from a Bowl Championship Series automatic qualifying conference. Army also scores a win over Air Force, ending a six-game skid versus the Falcons and 13-game losing streak in Commander In Chief's Trophy contests. Quarterback Trent Steelman (1,248) and running back Raymond Maples (1,215) become just the second Army duo to both rush for 1,000 yards in the same season. Maples is only the third Army player (Mike Mayweather, Carlton Jones) to reach the millenium mark in back-to-back seasons. Steelman sets Army quarterback records for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns (17) in a season. The four-year starter finished his career as the Black Knights' all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (45) and the Army quarterback leader in rushing attempts (772), rushing yards (3,320) and 100-yard games (12).

2013—Terry Baggett broke the all-time record for rushing yards in a single game with 304 yards against Eastern Michigan at Michie Stadium on Oct. 11. He was the first Army player to capture Walter Camp National Player of the Week honors after that performance. He averaged 16.9 yards per carry and scored four touchdowns in a 50-25 win and made the Black Knights 3-4 up to that point in the season. Baggett finished with 1,113 yards on the ground with eight touchdowns. He became the 18th player in football history to reach 1,000 yards in a season. Jeff Monken was named the 37th head coach of Army football on Christmas Eve.

2014—Head coach Jeff Monken began his tenure at West Point, winning his first game against Buffalo by a 47-39 score. He became the first coach since Bob Sutton in 1991, to win his first game at Army. He was the first coach since Ed Cavanaugh in 1980 to win his first game over a Football Bowl Subdivision team. Larry Dixon became the 19th Army player in school history to reach 1,000 rushing yards in a season with 1,118 in 2014. Chris Carnegie returned an interception 99 yards against UConn at Yankee Stadium in the final minutes to secure a 35-21 win over the Huskies on Nov. 8.

2015— Army won a game as the road team for the first time since 2010 with a dominating performance at Eastern Michigan on Sept. 26. The Black Knights racked up 654 yards of total offense in the 58-36 victory, which was the second most all-time and most against an FBS opponent in school history. The 58 points scored were the most against an FBS school since recording 59 against Louisville in an overtime thriller at Michie Stadium. The 556 yards on the ground were the most against a current FBS opponent in Academy history. Edgar Poe hauled in seven touchdown catches in 2015, which was the most since Jeremy Trimble had seven in 2007. Quarterbacks Ahmad Bradshaw and Chris Carter each ran and threw for 100 yards in their Army debuts. Bradshaw's came against Fordham, while Carter did it against Rutgers.

2012 - ARMY HELD ITS SPRING GAME AT DOUGHBOY STADIUM AT FORT BENNING, GA.

2016— The streak is over. The Army West Point football team defeated service academy rival Navy, 21-17, on December 10, for the first time since 2001. The Black Knights extended their season with a 38-31 win over North Texas in the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl on December 27, 2016. The victory marked Army's first bowl win since 2010 and the first time the Black Knights reached eight wins since the 1996 season. The Cadets closed out the year with three straight victories. The win improved Army to 4-2 overall in Bowl Games. Junior quarterback Ahmad Bradshaw was named the game's MVP with 129 yards rushing, including a score. He was the second quarterback since 1930 to run for 129 yards. The 2016 squad ranked fourth nationally in total defense, sixth in pass defense and 11th in interceptions. Senior linebacker Andrew King represented the Black Knights in the East-West Shrine Game and was then named the recipient of the Defender of the Nation Award.

2016 - ARMY ENDED THE STREAK

THE 1944 ARMY TEAM WENT 9-0 CLAIMING THE FIRST OF ARMY'S THREE STRAIGHT NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS.

The numbers bound off the page with the explosiveness of a "Doc" Blanchard burst up the middle. Fifty-six points per game ... five-hundred-four points scored ... thirty-five points allowed ... four shutouts ... nine wins without a loss ... six first team All-America selections.

Never before had a college football team authored such astonishing credentials. No squad has been able to duplicate that dominance since. Many college football historians contend the 1944 Army squad ranks as the finest college club ever assembled. Critics are hard-pressed to build a substantive argument against those bold assertions.

It was the prelude to a dynasty, a decade of success never experienced along the banks of the Hudson. And it began with the hiring of Earl "Red" Blaik as Army head coach following the 1940 season.

Blaik enjoyed immediate success at West Point, leading the Cadets to three consecutive winning records during his first three years at the Army helm. With World War II raging, colleges all over the country suspended the eligibility rule for freshmen. West Point was no exception, and Blaik's teams benefitted greatly. The crafty mentor was able to secure appointments for some of the nation's top young players.

The most important addition to the 1943 club was a standout halfback named Glenn Davis. Though only a plebe, Davis starred for the Cadets that year. Another one of Blaik's prized recruits arrived at West Point the following year in the form of Blanchard. Together "Mr. Inside" (Blanchard) and "Mr. Outside" (Davis), as they were labeled, would form one of college football's greatest running duos.

Still the hard-running backfield tandem was but a single component within Army's vast arsenal. In fact, Army's depth was so great that Blaik fielded two squads. The "Lombardo Team," quarterbacked by Tom Lombardo, consisted primarily of plebes, including Blanchard and Davis. The "Kenna Team," led by senior signal caller Doug Kenna, started every game before yielding to Lombardo's unit at the start of the second quarter.

Once asked to select the best game he saw these teams play, Blaik responded, "That's easy. It was a Wednesday afternoon in October when they scrimmaged each other. Each scored two touchdowns, but the intensity and execution were the best I ever have seen on any gridiron, any place."

As a whole, the unit was awesome, easily becoming the first unbeaten and untied team at West Point since 1916. In order, the Cadets pounded North Carolina (46-0), Brown (59-7), Pittsburgh (69-7), Coast Guard (76-0), Duke (27-7) and Villanova (83-0). The Cadets set their sights on mighty Notre Dame next. It had been 13 years since Army had defeated the Irish, but that streak ended at Yankee Stadium as the Cadets registered a surprising 59-0 rout. Fears of a let-down the following week versus Pennsylvania were quickly quelled when Army blitzed the Quakers 62-7.

That verdict set the stage for a climactic showdown with arch-rival Navy. The matchup, pitting the top-ranked Cadets against the second-ranked

ARMY 59, NOTRE DAME 0

Midshipmen, would decide the national championship. A crowd of better than 70,000 packed Baltimore's Municipal Stadium to witness Army roll to a 23-7 victory.

That night Blaik received a telegram: "The greatest of all Army teams—STOP—We have stopped the war to celebrate your magnificent success. MacArthur."

Still one of the most inspirational tributes came from Blaik, himself.

"Seldom in a lifetime's experience is one permitted the complete satisfaction of being part of a perfect performance. To the coaches, the 23-7 is enough. To the squad members, by hard work and sacrifice, you superbly combined ability, ambition, and the desire to win, thereby leaving a rich heritage for future Academy squads. From her sons West Point expects the best—you were the best. In truth, you were a storybook team."

1945 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

As the Army football team prepared for the 1945 season, victory had been declared in the Pacific and Gen. Douglas MacArthur called for a "better world" to emerge from the ashes of World War II.

Soldiers were returning from Europe, and the United States was celebrating the end of almost four years of global conflict. West Point's 1945 grid squad, meanwhile, faced the daunting task of replicating the accomplishments of Army's 1944 team, which included the Cadets' first perfect season in nearly 30 years, a national championship and collegiate records for scoring and scoring margin that still stand today.

Fortunately, Felix "Doc" Blanchard, Glenn Davis and Arnold Tucker returned to see if they could create a football dynasty. The team dubbed "Blaik's Black Knights" by New York Sun sportswriter Will Wedge would ultimately measure up to the task.

During an easy 32-0 season-opening victory over Personnel Distribution Command of the Army Air Force stationed at Louisville, Ky., a new star emerged in the Black Knights' constellation. Thomas "Shorty" McWilliams, a plebe who had been a standout at Mississippi State in 1944, guided Army's Wing-T offense to a lopsided win.

The Cadets followed with lopsided verdicts over Wake Forest (54-0), Michigan (28-7), Melville, R.I., USN (55-13), Duke (48-13) and Villanova (54-0). The Cadets expected a stern battle against Notre Dame the next week at Yankee Stadium. More than 75,000 fans witnessed an awesome Army display as the Cadets proved their convincing win over the Irish one year earlier was no fluke, cruising to a 48-0 victory.

A week later, Blanchard and Davis combined for five touchdowns as Army crushed longtime nemesis Pennsylvania 61-0, handing the Quakers their worst loss since 1888. Moreover, that game has been called "Army's peak game of all time." According to noted sportswriter Tim Cohane, "The Black Knights were invincible on the attack, overpowering on the defense. Their blocking and tackling were murderous; their team speed blinding."

The Cadets would need every bit of that talent two weeks later against undefeated Navy in Philadelphia.

THE 1945 TEAM RECORDED FIVE OF ITS NINE VICTORIES BY SHUTOUT.

As was the case in 1944, the game would decide the national championship.

Army raced out to a 20-0 first-quarter lead and the Midshipmen could never recover, falling 32-13 as Blanchard finished with three touchdowns and Davis with two.

Honors came pouring in for the team and its players. Army was the unanimous national champion, and Blanchard captured the Heisman Trophy as the nation's outstanding player. Davis was runnerup. Blanchard also received the Maxwell Cup and Walter Camp Trophy as college football's outstanding player and the Sullivan Award as the outstanding amateur athlete in America. Six Army players were tabbed as first team All-America picks.

Evaluating the squad that year, Blaik called it the greatest team he had ever coached. Some have argued that the 1945 Army team was the best in the history of college football. One look at the team's accomplishments makes it hard to debate that assessment.

Blaik acclaimed "Coach of the Year"
National Champions

THE ONLY BLEMISH ON THE 1946 TEAM'S RECORD WAS A 0-0 TIE WITH NOTRE DAME IN A BATTLE OF NO. 1 VS. NO. 2.

Only eight starters from Army's 1945 national championship team returned to the West Point fold the following year as the Cadets attempted to capture a third consecutive national championship. Fortunately for head coach Earl "Red" Blaik, the returning players included standouts Felix "Doc" Blanchard, Glenn Davis and Arnold Tucker.

The Cadets kicked off their 1946 campaign against Villanova, racing to an easy 35-0 victory, but the win was tainted when Blanchard suffered a serious knee injury. Diagnosed as a torn anterior cruciate ligament and a torn membrane, Blanchard's ailment would have sidelined lesser players for the entire year, yet Blanchard would return the following month.

Defeats of Oklahoma (21-7) and Cornell (46-21) followed, setting the stage for a rematch against No. 4 Michigan in the Wolverines' new stadium in Ann Arbor, Mich. Playing for the first time since his knee injury, Blanchard proved little threat to the Wolverines until scoring the game-winning touchdown, sparking second-ranked Army to a 20-13 win.

Michigan head coach Fritz Crisler said later that season, "We played our finest game of the year against Army," and Wolverine running back Bob Chappuis admitted, "We were three months recovering from that game."

Blanchard began to regain his form against Columbia the next week, scoring four times in the Cadets' 48-14 whipping of the Lions. Consecutive 19-0 shutouts of Duke and West Virginia preceded another showdown with No. 1 Notre Dame.

The nation's two top-ranked teams went head-to-head at Yankee Stadium in a classic defensive struggle that ended in a 0-0 tie. Notre Dame stiffened six times with Army inside the Irish 30, while the Cadets allowed Notre Dame past midfield just three times all day. The scoreless deadlock snapped Army's winning streak at 25 and each team maintained its national ranking.

Army shrugged off early offensive lethargy to deal Pennsylvania a 34-7 setback heading into the annual season-ending battle with arch-rival Navy. The season had taken a dreadful toll on the Black Knights, who nonetheless were unbeaten entering the fray.

A crowd of 100,000 jammed Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium for one of the most stunning contests in the history of the series. Army jumped out to a 21-6 halftime bulge, but Navy came roaring back, closing to within 21-18. As time wound down, Navy drove to the Army 3-yard line, but two late plunges by fullback Lynn Chewning and another by Pete Williams, who was corralled by Barney Poole, proved fruitless.

As the ball sat just four yards from paydirt and a Navy upset, the clock ran out on another frenzied service academy classic, providing Army with a 21-18 win and its third straight undefeated season.

Notre Dame was named national champion in five polls that year with Army claiming top honors in two others. The teams were listed as co-champions in three additional rankings.

Still, Army had much to be proud about. Davis accepted the Heisman Trophy as the outstanding football player in the nation. Tucker received the Sullivan Award as the country's outstanding amateur athlete. And Blaik was named "Coach of the Year" by the Football Coaches Association of America. In all, four Cadets garnered first team All-America honors.

Looking back on his players and the teams of Army's glory years, Blaik said, "Doc" and Glenn did more for West Point football than any other player or coach in history."

That fact still holds true today.

Michigan head coach Fritz Crisler said later that season, "We played our finest game of the year against Army," and Wolverine running back Bob Chappuis admitted, "We were three months recovering from that game."

The John W. Heisman Memorial Trophy Award is presented each year by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York to the nation's outstanding college football player.

First known as the D.A.C. Trophy, the award was renamed in 1936 for John W. Heisman, the first athletic director of the Downtown Athletic Club, a football player at Pennsylvania and Brown and a coach for 36 years, including tours at Auburn, Oberlin, Clemson, Akron, Pennsylvania, Rice, Washington & Jefferson and Georgia Tech.

The bronze trophy was sculpted by Frank Eliscu with the help of one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen," Jim Crowley, whose Fordham players posed as models.

Since the inception of the Heisman Trophy in 1935, three Army players have garnered the award. Only four other schools—Notre Dame (7), Southern California (7), Ohio State (7) and Oklahoma (5)—have had more winners.

Army's "Mr. Inside," Felix "Doc" Blanchard, and "Mr. Outside," Glenn Davis, captured the Heisman in back-to-back years in 1945 and 1946, respectively, leading Army to national championships in both years. Just over a decade later (1958), Pete Dawkins led the Cadets to their most recent Lambert Trophy title and their last undefeated season (8-0-1) on his way to earning the honor.

In 1990, Mike Mayweather became the first Army player to attract serious attention from Heisman voters since Dawkins' selection more than 30 years prior. Mayweather, who graduated from West Point in 1991 as Army's all-time leading rusher and the most prolific runner in service academy history, finished 10th in the Heisman balloting, garnering three first-place votes.

An All-America selection who also finished as second runnerup in voting for the inaugural Doak Walker Award, Mayweather rushed for a then school-record 1,338 yards in 1990, concluding with 4,299 career ground yards, another Army standard.

HALL OF FAME HAS STRONG ARMY INFLUENCE

Founded in 1947 by immortal journalist Grantland Rice, legendary Army coach Earl "Red" Blaik and West Point graduate Gen. Douglas MacArthur, the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame is dedicated to mobilizing the constructive forces of amateur football at all levels for the benefit of society as a whole.

In addition to the visionary foresight of Blaik and MacArthur, who helped shape the Foundation in its early days, the College Hall of Fame carries a distinct Army flavor as 27 former players and coaches have been included among the game's elite. In addition, others with West Point ties, like Bill Yeoman '50 and Bob Neyland '16, have been enshrined.

Recognized as the "Father of Cougar Football," Yeoman forged a sparkling 160-108-8 (.597) record during a 25-year stint at the University of Houston, leading the Cougars to 11 bowl games and four Southwest Conference championships. Neyland, named head coach at Tennessee in 1926, spent 27 seasons at the helm of the Volunteers' program. In that time, his squads amassed a 173-32-12 record and captured four national championships. Neyland was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1956.

The Foundation inducted its first class into the Hall of Fame in 1951, and each year the gridiron's greatest collegians have been enshrined among the pantheon of players who have shaped the game. Today, the College Football Hall of Fame is located in South Bend, Ind.

More than 900 players and coaches, who exemplified the Foundation's basic creed of Scholarship, Citizenship and Performance, are honored in a world-class museum.

Former President and Foundation Gold Medal recipient Dwight D. Eisenhower summed up the impact of college football with the following: "In football, in business, in the trades and the professions, the normal urge to excel provides one of the most hopeful assurances that our kind of society will continue to advance and prosper. Morale ... the will to win, the fighting heart ... are the honored hallmarks of the football coach and player. This morale, this will, this heart ... we need not only in athletic teams as individual, but collectively."

Since 1925, when Gus Farwick and Edgar Garbisch competed in the East-West Shrine Game, dozens of Army players have been invited to participate in postseason all-star games. The following list shows those players who appeared in games, and when (year reflective of date game was played).
